

THE BULLSHEET #2 is a (very) irregular publication of MidAmeriCon. We trust our many devoted readers will be delighted to know that production problems involving a broken mimeograph have been overcome. However, to avoid a recurrence of the trouble we ask that attendees make sacrificial offerings of old pulps, cash, and Beam's Choice. Pulps should be routed to the sanitation engineer-incineration, in the Muehlebach basement, cash to your favorite fan, and a Mr. Tucker from somewhere in Illinois has offered to see that offerings of Beam's Choice reach the proper destination. The news...

NOTICE: THE HUGO AWARDS WILL START AT 8:00 pm SUNDAY AS SCHEDULED, NOT AT 8:30 AS YOU WERE ADVISED IN Bullsheet No. 1.

CHANGES IN MEETINGS: First Fandom Meeting is now scheduled to follow Robert Heinlein's GoH speech Sunday evening. It is to be held in the Windsor Room in the Phillips House across 12th st. /// The performance of Jophan announced for Friday has been changed; it will be from 6:30 to 7:30 Sunday evening in the Music Room. The filking has been shortened to 1/2 hour, 6:00 pm to 6:30 to allow for it.

CORRECTION IN POCKET PROGRAM: "Image & Emblem in 2001" will be at 12:30 pm Saturday, not "12:03" as printed in the Pocket Program.

JOE HALDEMAN AUTOGRAPH PARTY: Saturday, 9:30 pm, Room 1266. War Year, The Forever War, and Mindbridge are available. Sponsors, St. Martin's Press and SFLIS.

APA-NYU COLLATION: Time 5:00 pm Saturday, Room 666, Muehlebach Hotel. Sponsor, NYU Science Fiction Society.

DUNGEONS & DRAGONS: There will be a meeting for players and referees of D&D at 2:00 pm Saturday afternoon, after the Burroughs Dum-Dum. Place: the Game Room Lounge in the Phillips House.

COMPUTERS AND SPACE MEETINGS: Session on computers Saturday at 6:00 pm, Room 770, including information on Altair home computer kits. Session on space Sunday at 4:00 pm (same place) will have information on the International Astronautics Congress in Anaheim, Ca, in October. (Robert Osband)

LOST'N'FOUND: Found, Man's wristwatch with a black band. Owner please identify and claim at Headquarters Room.

MASQUERADE TICKETS will again be available at 1:00 and 3:00 pm Saturday; while they last.

BELLY DANCERS: Will Cindy Wike, Peggy Gemignani, Dixie Tracy, and Bobbi Belknap please contact Pat Cadigan at noon Saturday at the MAC Headquarters Room?

Lost OR STRAYED: Nikkormat E L camera and flash attachment. Last seen at Art Show check stand. We think this equipment was picked up by mistake, but just in case the serial numbers have been registered with convention security and the city police. If you do find this equipment please turn it in at Con HQ. The film in the camera is especially needed by its owner. No questions will be asked; we just want the camera to get back. Please help us out.

MASQUERADE TICKETS will be available again at 1:00 pm and at 3:00 pm Saturday, while they last.

BURROUGHS BIBLIOPHILES ROOM: The Bibliophiles' room is #365 and is available to Burroughs Bibliophiles and their friends for meeting, talk, or whatever. See India Grow for the key if you can't get in. Also, a Burroughs Trivia Contest is planned and competitors are needed. See India if you are interested in taking part. (India Grow)

FOOD: We are advised that since the Haberdashery is primarily a bar it isn't well-prepared for hordes of fans seeking food. As a result, service is intolerably bad. (Mike Ward) "Note also - Beer is intolerably expensive." (Al Kuhfeld) /// Ross Pavlac and Mike Glycer recommend the ribs at Arthur Bryants, 1727 Brooklyn. It's about a $3.00 taxi ride. Warning: Don't go after dark.

THE SCIENCE FICTION COMMUNICATION CENTER is an organization desiring to promote sf clubs and interclub communications. Look for the bright green half-sheet forms if you are interested. Contact the SFCC through Dr. James S. Van Ness, Vilas Hall, St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y. 13617.

THE RANQUET is planned for Sunday at 12 Noon; Ranqueters will meet in the lobby. Sponsors are Mike Glycer and Tim Marion.

THE DELAP F & SF REVIEW will host a meeting Sunday at 10:30 am in Richard Delap's room. (Dixon Inn, Room 602) This is a "social 'staff meeting'" intended to let the editor, the publisher, and the reviewers meet each other and to discuss where the magazine is going.

LOIS NEWMAN BOOKS: There will be an auction of a letter (6 pages long) from H. P. Lovecraft to Frank Belknap Long at Lois Newman's table in the huckster room, to start about 2:00 pm Sunday. The letter may be viewed beforehand by interested collectors.

Allan Rothstein of Los Angeles wishes it known that he is not the same person as Jerry Jacks of San Francisco. Jerry Jacks of San Francisco wishes it known that he is not the same person as Allan Rothstein of Los Angeles. Allan tells us he and Jerry look a lot alike and this has confused a number of fans.

PHOENIX IN '78: Phoenix won the 1978 worldcon; GoH Harlan Ellison, Fan GoH Bill Bowers. Look for Progress Report #0, out at MAC. Memberships in IguanaCon 2 available at MAC. Yes, I am assured it really is called "IguanaCon".

MASQUERADE INFO: Only 1200 tickets remain; 500 already given out. One to a person please. If you don't get a ticket, catch it on videotape. /// Registration for contestants closes at 4:00 pm Saturday. You must be pre-registered by then to be in the masquerade. Contestants will gather in the foyer of the Colonial Ballroom (the con registration area) at 7:30 pm sharp. /// Photographers will not be admitted without a ticket. Available light photography only will be allowed in the Imperial Ballroom: NO flash photography! There will be a photographers' area in the Colonial Ballroom after 8:00 pm. Stu Brownstein will be in charge of photographers. /// Non-North American attendees can pick up their tickets at the masquerade desk before 5:00 pm.

"Please put final movie schedule in Bullsheet!." There is no final movie schedule. Keep checking the marquee outside the film room.

STAR WARS NEWS: Remember the Star Wars display. Production paintings, and sketches, as well as props, costumes, and photographs from Star Wars are on display in room 364. On Saturday the room will be open from noon to 9:00 pm. /// At 1:30 in the Imperial Ballroom Star Wars producer Gary Kurtz and actor Mike Hamill (he plays lead Luke Skywalker) will answer questions after a special slide presentation on the film. /// 11:00 pm Saturday the Film Room will show George Lucas' first science fiction film, the short, Electronic Labyrinth (originally: THX-1138EB)

ARTISTS' MEETING in Room 930 at 2:00 pm Saturday. Purpose: To discuss copyright, publishing, organization, and other topics related to the sf and fantasy art field.

VIKING LANDING UPDATES: There is a toll-free number for Viking updates from the Jet Propulsion Lab in Pasadena: 1-800-423-4275 or 423-4276. (Jeff Johnston)

VIDEO NEWS: KMAC began closed-circuit broadcasts on ch. 12 at approx. 1:00 am Saturday morning. There may be some variation in the quality of individual sets' reception, but if severe or persistent they will likely be the result of individual set mis-adjustments. /// Scheduling of video replays and live programming to follow when available. (Madman Riley)

LOST 'N' FOUND: Found, one checkbook. Owner identify and claim at the convention HQ.

We have no information on a possible showing of ROLLERBABIES.

FOOD: Number 49, the Grand Deli, is a parking lot. As a result we didn't think much of either food or service. (Bill and Barb Sherman)

THE NEO-FAN'S GUIDE is still available in the Neo-Fans' Room, all for a mere 25¢.

NUMBERS: As of the close of registration Friday, 2471 people were attending. The last number assigned was 4166. (John Taylor)

We'd like to thank some of the people who are helping us get our 'Sheet together: some of them are David Klaus, Patrick Hayden, Ron Bushyager, Eric Lindsay, Linda Lounsbury, Moshe Feder, Bob Roehm, Alan Bostick, and Jackie Franke. May the great ghod Roscoe bless you all. Artist for Bullsheet #1 was Jay Kinney; for #2 Marc Schirmeister and Taral Wayne McDonald (page 3), and may Roscoe bless all 3 of you, too. Finally, may He bless those whose names are lost in our present fog of 4:00 am fatigue. Thank you.
