"Those interested in the British publication for sf discussion, "Vector," and its sponsor, the British Science Fiction Association, will find forms available from Dave Kyle, the "Hon. Director" of the BSFA, who is here this weekend.

THE NOREASCON PROCEEDINGS are available to fans at the NESFA table in the Hucksters Room.

FOOD? Service at the Greenery is reportedly not too good: "We waited 1 hr. for service, my food arrived cold, my companion's never arrived. ((He may have been the lucky one! -- Ed.)) We got no water or beverages of any kind. The waitress could not recall who had ordered what, and slopped orange juice all over our table. No manager was available to receive complaints. If you value your nerves and your stomach lining, stay away!" (Jeff Duntemann)
