CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR NEW ANZAPA PRESIDENT!

As you'll see from the results published following the OBO, our new esteemed President is Leigh Edmonds! Well done, and well-deserved, Leigh. May your reign be a peaceful one.

And thanks to all those members who it seems made nice comments about your humble OBE on their ballots. Much appreciated.

Thanks also, of course, to our immediate past President Claire Brialey for running the poll and reporting the results.

ALMOST NEW MEMBER?

I have been approached by Julie Faith Rigby/McMurray about joining ANZAPA and I sent her the links to download the last mailing. However, that was only about a week ago and she hasn't provided me with a contribution as yet so she's not yet officially a member. I'll send her this OBO, though, and hope she can join us in the next mailing. If so, that will bring the membership up to 29, only one short of the maximum. If this keeps on we'll need a waiting list!

GRUMPS

A couple of members intermittently send me other file types instead of PDFs for their contributions. I got two such this time around. While I am prepared to convert these (reluctantly), I really don't think there's much excuse these days for not being able to generate PDFs on your own system (and the same members haven't had problems doing so in the past).

If I have to convert your contribution for you, be warned that I take absolutely no responsibility about how well or badly the conversion turns out.

And if you send me a Microsoft Word document with embedded macros, I'm not even going to open it!

I do wonder whether in fact some of this isn't down to Microsoft's inexplicable decision many years ago to hide the file type extensions of files in Windows Explorer, so that you can have several files of apparently exactly the same name in a folder, differing only by the file extension which you can't see. Please check that you are sending me a PDF.

THIS MAILING'S COVER

I thought it was well past time that we had another lady featured on the cover. I do marvel at this young woman's amazing ability to carry a load on her head up such a precipitous mountain path all the while thinking about her next ANZAPA contribution....

ANZAPA CONSTITUTION

The Australian and New Zealand Amateur Publishing Association ("ANZAPA" or "the APA") is an organisation which was established in 1968 by Australian comics and science fiction fans. It publishes a bi-monthly compilation ("a mailing") of amateur magazines or fanzines.

It consists of up to thirty persons or couples, who pay an appropriate fee and contribute to the next available mailing. If there are no vacancies, applicants are placed on a waiting list and invited to join when there is a vacancy.

The APA is run by an Official Bloody Editor ("the OBE") elected from amongst the members when there is a vacancy. The OBE will ensure the collection of zines by the tenth day of each even-numbered month, and their distribution to all members as soon thereafter as is practical, including an Official Organ, which includes a list of the contents, a membership roster, and a financial statement, and annually this constitution. The zines shall be in a medium determined by the OBE, who shall also ensure the maintenance of an archive of all distributions, collect annual fees (due with each August mailing and sufficient to meet the APA's projected annual costs), and maintain the APA's finances. The OBE may appoint an Emergency Editor to perform any of the OBE's duties, and other such assistants as may be required.

To retain membership, a member must contribute a minimum of six A4 pages (or close equivalent) of self-written material every six months. The material should be original and be primarily intended for publication in ANZAPA. What counts as acceptable material for the purposes of minac is at the OBE's discretion.

A President shall be elected annually by means of a popularity poll ("the Anzapoll"), distributed with the August mailing. The President's duties shall be to organise the following poll and 'encourager les autres'.

This Constitution can be amended only by a positive vote of at least 75% of the ballots received by the OBE after the following procedure: proposals in writing, endorsed by three members, must be sent to the OBE, who will publish them in the following Official Organ; in the second mailing after the proposal's receipt, the OBE shall distribute a ballot, with a specified closing date.

Special Rules may be adopted from time to time, at the OBE's discretion, unless a majority of members oppose the proposed rule within twenty eight days of its distribution.
