Mailing address:Email:*Website:<https://anzapa.org>MANY THANKS...

...to Margaret and Bob Riep, and to Carey Handfield and Bruce Gillespie, for organising an ANZAPA get-together on Sunday 26 February at Urban Grooves in Greensborough. If by any chance you didn't get Margaret's email about this, do contact her directly.

SAD NEWS

I'm sure all Anzapans will join me in expressing our sympathies to Alison Scott, who as you'll see in her contribution this mailing, has recently lost both of her parents within a very short time.

AN APOLOGY...

...to LynC, who rightly scolds me for not passing on last time that she had come down with COVID just before the December mailing, which is why she only had a limited contribution that time. Sorry, Lyn.

APOLOGY OF A DIFFERENT SORT...

...from Kim Huett, who writes that he hasn't been able to contribute in this mailing but expects to join us again in April.

A LETTER OF COMMENT

Sort of, kinda, from Garry Dalrymple, which he sent to me as an email. Rather than reproduce it here, I've just turned it into a PDF and inserted it into the mailing as though it is a contribution.

THAT BLANK LOOK

I can't help remarking on the fact that there are a lot of contributions this time with an odd number of pages.

Now, I know that fanzines are pretty odd things anyway, but it would be nice if you folk could make an effort to even things up. As it is, there will be no less than 16 blank pages inserted into the mailing this time, which may not be an issue for those who read it digitally, but it all adds to the cost for those who print it out to read.

PART A, PART B

If you'll recall last time I introduced a new system for the monochrome Whole Mailing (cheapest to print). This is now split into Part A and Part B, the latter containing the genzines. This time in part B are only my own Megaloscope and Perry's Perryscopes.

Next mailing deadline: 11:59 pm AEDT on Friday, 7 April 2023

Overseas members should probably aim to upload by midnight
Thursday their time.

ANZAPA CONSTITUTION

The Australian and New Zealand Amateur Publishing Association ("ANZAPA" or "the APA") is an organisation which was established in 1968 by Australian comics and science fiction fans. It publishes a bi-monthly compilation ("a mailing") of amateur magazines or fanzines.

It consists of up to thirty persons or couples, who pay an appropriate fee and contribute to the next available mailing. If there are no vacancies, applicants are placed on a waiting list and invited to join when there is a vacancy.

The APA is run by an Official Bloody Editor ("the OBE") elected from amongst the members when there is a vacancy. The OBE will ensure the collection of zines by the tenth day of each even-numbered month, and their distribution to all members as soon thereafter as is practical, including an Official Organ, which includes a list of the contents, a membership roster, and a financial statement, and annually this constitution. The zines shall be in a medium determined by the OBE, who shall also ensure the maintenance of an archive of all distributions, collect annual fees (due with each August mailing and sufficient to meet the APA's projected annual costs), and maintain the APA's finances. The OBE may appoint an Emergency Editor to perform any of the OBE's duties, and other such assistants as may be required.

To retain membership, a member must contribute a minimum of six A4 pages (or close equivalent) of self-written material every six months. The material should be original and be primarily intended for publication in ANZAPA. What counts as acceptable material for the purposes of minac is at the OBE's discretion.

A President shall be elected annually by means of a popularity poll ("the Anzapoll"), distributed with the August mailing. The President's duties shall be to organise the following poll and 'encourager les autres'.

This Constitution can be amended only by a positive vote of at least 75% of the ballots received by the OBE after the following procedure: proposals in writing, endorsed by three members, must be sent to the OBE, who will publish them in the following Official Organ; in the second mailing after the proposal's receipt, the OBE shall distribute a ballot, with a specified closing date.

Special Rules may be adopted from time to time, at the OBE's discretion, unless a majority of members oppose the proposed rule within twenty eight days of its distribution.
