Flicker campaigns unsuccessfully to win Best Fannish Cat in 2010

Editor and Emergency Editor hard at work collating ANZAPA, helped by Archie and Flicker

Cover photos: Cats rule, okay?

Why have I printed photos of Greensborough cats and their supplicants on the cover of this OBO instead of extra photos from Aussiecon?

Because I printed the best ANZAPA Aussiecon photos, in colour, last time. If you can think of some other Aussiecon photos that I really should print, remind me of them.

However, what I would really appreciate receiving are more historical photos of ANZAPA members and ex-members, and other famous Australian fans. Please keep them coming.

A mighty cheer for Bill Wright!

One of the photos this time is a tribute to Bill Wright, who as Emergency Editor, has been traipsing up the hill from Greensborough station to our place every two months for at least the last five years. He has to take a rest stop at Urban Grooves, and sometimes he nearly doesn't make it, but he always arrives. That's why the mailings come out as regularly as they do. When Bill arrives, he needs to sit down for awhile. And Flicker welcomes him every time ... as you can see from the photo.

Welcome to our new member, Knud Larn!

I'm still not quite sure how Knud Larn found us from Denmark. He emailed me, I explained who we were, and that the membership fee is very high, but this didn't put him off. I enjoyed his first contribution very much, as no doubt you will too.

Finances: The bloody Post Orfal beats us yet again!

I thought we were really going well last time. A one-envelope mailing, fitting nicely under the 500 gram limit. But the Post Office seems determined to persecute anybody who still uses its services. I received a bill for $79.70 extra! At first I thought it was because the envelopes had been overweight; that is, over 500 grams. Not so. Because I had stuck on the stamps in two rows, the PO seems not to have noticed the bottom row of stamps, and therefore had charged me, for some envelopes, saying that the packets were over 250 grams!

Date	Item	Money in	Money out	Balance
				1133.01
16/10/10	Mailing No 257: Postage & envelopes		130.40	1002.61
6/9/10	Further donations (not counted last time)	$40.00		1042.01
27/10/10	Australia Post excess postage bill (see above)		$79.70	962.31
	Total			962.31

I did not charge ANZAPA for the four-page OBO colour spread for October, but I won't be repeating the experiment. It cost a lot more than I expected. Could I make a deal sometime with some ANZAPA member who can offer colour laser printing at a much lower cost than I get from Copy Place?

ANZAPA CONSTITUTION

1. The Australian and New Zealand Amateur Publishing Association (ANZAPA) is an association of people whose common interest is amateur journalism. Its purpose is to facilitate communication between its members through a bi-monthly exchange of publications.

2. Membership

Membership is limited to thirty persons or couples. On joining, a member shall be required to pay a pro rata membership fee and contribute to the following mailing. If there are no vacancies, applications for membership will be placed on a waiting list.

3. Activity

To retain membership, a member must contribute a minimum of six A4 or US Letter pages of self-written material every six months. Contributions must be supplied to the Official Bloody Editor in editions of substantially identical copies. The number of copies required for a mailing is five (5) more than the number of members in the previous mailing.

A publication apparently intended to circulate widely outside ANZAPA in addition to ANZAPA will not be counted towards a member's minimum activity requirements, unless it bears conspicuously on its cover or front page the words 'First published in ANZAPA' (or words to similar effect) and the name and address of the member on whose behalf credit is sought.

4. Mailings

Mailing dates shall be the tenth of the months of February, April, June, August, October, and December. Mailing deadlines may be announced by the Official Bloody Editor. With each mailing, the Official Bloody Editor shall publish an official Organ, including a list of the contents, a membership roster, and a financial statement. Material which violates postal regulations shall not be included. The Official Bloody Editor shall publish this constitution in the Official Bloody Organ at least once a year.

5. Fees

Members are required to pay an annual fee by the mailing deadline of the August mailing. The amount of the fee for each member shall be determined each year by the Official Bloody Editor and set at a rate sufficient to cover the projected annual costs of postage to that member plus an equal contribution to the other running costs of the organisation. The proposed fee schedule shall be published in the February mailing.

6. Officers of the Association

A president shall be elected annually by means of a popularity poll (called 'Anzapopoll'). The President's duties shall be to organise the following poll and 'encourager les autres'.

An Official Bloody Editor shall be elected (or re-elected) annually. The Official Bloody Editor shall be an Australian resident. The duties of the Official Bloody Editor shall include distributing the mailing, publishing the official organ, and controlling the Association's finances. Other duties may be undertaken at the Official Bloody Editor's discretion.

An Emergency Editor may be appointed by the Official Bloody Editor to perform any of the Official Bloody Editor's duties.

7. Elections

The ballot for the election of the Official Bloody Editor, containing the names of all those who have been nominated for the office, shall be distributed with the February mailing. The closing date shall be the 10th of March or twenty eight days after the February mailing has been distributed. The counting of votes shall be conducted by a member not standing for office. Elections shall be by simple majority. The result shall be announced in the April official organ, and the incoming Official Bloody Editor shall assume duties with the June Mailing.

The Anzapopoll shall be conducted by the President in conjunction with the August mailing. The incoming President shall assume office with the October mailing.

8. Amendments

Proposed amendments to the Constitution shall be submitted in writing to the Official Bloody Editor, bearing the signatures of three members. These amendments shall be set out in the official organ for the mailing immediately following their reception by the Official Bloody Editor. With the second mailing following their reception, the Official Bloody Editor shall distribute a ballot. The closing date for the return of ballots shall be twenty eight days after the mailing has been distributed. Any amendments receiving at least a 75% positive vote of the votes returned shall be passed.

9. Special Rules

Special Rules may be adopted from time to time, provided a majority of voters endorses a copy of the proposed rule within twenty eight days of its distribution. Such a proposal must be distributed to the entire membership at substantially the same time. Any member other than the proposer(s) may be nominated to count votes.
