The Official Collator Substitute (Don Fitch) wishes to express hi gratitude and appreciation to those Ellers without whose help the 98th Distribution would never have gotten out -- at least not in time for Jerry and Barry to take a big stack of copies along for delivery at the TriCon the following day. Thanks are due to: Tom Gilbert, who kept the hand-out record; June Konigsberg, Tom Digby, & Helen Smith, who did yeoman work in the Collating (others were undoubtedly of much help, but the O.C. sub. was far too rushed to notice who they were); Jerry Jacks, who may have had to pay Extra Baggage fees for all the copies he took on the plane to deliver to con-attending Ellers; Barry Gold, who donated a part-tube of ink to The Cause (by Finagle's Law, your O.C. Sub. had to forget to bring along something of Critical Importance); and especial thanks to Noble Truefan J.G. Newkom, who drove all the way over to the Lab. to get said vital ink. It's a Good Job Fred will be back in two weeks; one more Distribution will just about be my limit.

...Don Fitch
