Winning ticket to be drawn at the Easter Convention in Birmingham.

I boobed in that I sent round the Doc Weir Voting Forms to the BSFA. I now discover that ONLY people registered for the convention are supposed to have the vote. I also see now, (he says feeling malnevolent) the wisdom for such a rule, because you should see some of the people that have got votes.

I reccomend that you vote for someone like Ella Parker, (my own choicc), Ken Slater, and maybe Ron Bennett, Terry Jeeves, Joe Navin. At least try to use your vote sensibly. please?. k m p cheslin.

THE FORTIETH CUCKOO

Ken Cheslin.

I'm sorry that this is a thinnish issue, but nothing much has come up that is newsworthy. Hmm. the cover is an old ill of Miks I had lying around, he's so busy I didn't like to ask him to cut me a new one.

We finally decided on what films to show. I've seen both, the second one about half-a-dozen times, but they'll be worth reshowing, and one for laughs.. they are, WHEN WORLDS COLLIDE, FORBIDDEN PLANET, & 12 episodes of a CAPTAIN MARVEL serial.....

Well, London has got the WORLDCON in 1965. The last time a Worldcon was held outside the States was in 1957, also in London.

Somewhere, probably in that Invaluable, Indispensible SKYRACK, I've seen rates for the Worldcon, but darned if I can find that SKY. Anyhow I do know that Jimmy Groves, 29, Lathom Road, East Ham, London, E.2.

is treasurer, (P.O.s and cheques should however be made out to;-

THE 23rd WORLD SCIENCE FICTION CONVENTION and not to Jim.

Charles Winstone has contributed a set of THE LORD OF THE RINGS to the con, they will be raffled at the convention.

TANGENT the fiction magazine of the BSFA is out. There are a few spare copies, 1/6 each, (a snip in my opinion). Contents are four stories, one fantasy like, the others S/F. By William K Aitken, W T Webb, Edward Mackin and Bert Lewis.
