People & Publishing

Lucy Sussex & Judith Buckrich's anthology She's Fantastical has been nominated for the World Fantasy Award for Best Anthology, and Petrina Smith's "Angel Thing" from the anthology made the ballot for Best Short Story.

People

Edwina Harvey notes "Marianne Plumridge, Peter Lupinski, Alex de Vos, Edwina Harvey, Sue Pears and Greg Rich will be presenting their second annual art show and sale over the weekend 14/15 September. This year the show will be held at the CWA hall on Main Street (old Hume Highway) Mittagong, (approx two hours drive south of Sydney or north of Canberra) The show will feature paintings, prints, cards, glass etching, leadlight, ceramics & pottery. Everyone welcome! As we are all SF fans, science fiction and fantasy are recurring themes in our work." Terry Frost mentioned that Smithfield regular Jim Nomaris is competing in the pistol events at the Paralympics in Atlanta.

Bullsheets Media Watch

George Ivanoff has had his first television speaking part. He appeared in Neighbours 9/8/96 as a pot delivery man. According to Ian Gunn, who watched the episode (Gunny claims that this is the first episode he's ever watched) George had three lines, all delivered in a broad Strine accent. "Give us a break lady", "She told me to bring 'em in 'ere" and "Fine by me". Gunny also notes that George's name does appear in the credits—just above the dog's. Irwin Hirsh got a letter about the ABC cuts into the Age Green Guide 8/8/96. You can't keep a good letterhack down. There is a piece on Arthur C. Clarke in The Weekend Australian August 17-18/8/96. It relates mainly to the release of 3001 next year.

Upcoming Conventions

Tim Jones tells me that the NZ Queens Birthday Long weekend was in June, so the Constellation entry has disappeared. A posting to aus.sf.star-trek by Carl Hudson notes "Starland (Starfest Conventions) are bringing George Takei and Marc Alaimo (DS9) to Adelaide in November. They are planning a big 30th Anniversary celebration." Contact Carl on carl@adam.com.au for more details.

Club Stuff

James Allen reports "No Babbling On 4, till Jools gets back from from her tour of Ireland and and Scotland at the end of September. In the meantime, the Aust B5 club (Which has—NO RELATIONSHIP—to the B5OZ club, except for people who may be members of both) will issue a bulletin called "code Seven R", if it needs to inform its members of meetings, conventions or new releases of Fleeer B5 cards (new sets coming in September)." It appears that the University of Queensland has its own Star Trek Club.
