"HEAR YE!"

3

We hold this truth to be self-evident: that all fans are created unequal. ---Some have more time to devote to this hobby than others.-- Some are fortunately situated where they are able to obtain quite easily and at remarkably low prices, really scarce material.--And some have lots of money.--And then, too, there are even some whose wives are fannes.-- Need we go on?

Orla sa derla, teedle tew;
