THE "A" STANDS FOR ADLAI!

A. Everett Winne, listed above in the copy of the FAPA Ballot for 1952, did not submit his name as a candidate for the secretary-treasurer's office. Without authority or permission, I drafted him to run. Nobody filed as a candidate, and rather than allow that office to fall willy-nilly to some unsuspecting write-in candidate who might not be eligible anyway, I decided to put up Winne's name. Though one of our newer members, Winne seems to be interested in FAPA, and he is qualified for the office. He works in a bank. He is over 21 years of age. He is conscientious.

I informed Everett of my draft, but could not, of course, get his answer before this was published and mailed. However, if he does not want to serve as FAPA secretary-treasurer, or for some reason cannot serve, he can of course immediately resign -- if elected -- and the new president can appoint someone else to the office. -- OE

ADDRESS CHANGE: Van Splawn, 4942 W. Pine blvd., St Louis 8, Mo...FTLaney, c/o O.E.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I should commission Burbee and Laney to ghostwrite these things; it would boost the readership of this page tremendously. As it happens, this is the sole presidential message of the year that no FAP can afford to miss, for on this occasion the one delegated function of the president is exercised. I pick the official teller for the election.

Who knows, it might be you?

As Redd so astutely pointed out to me, it is a mite difficult to choose a teller without knowing who the candidates for office are. Let this stand on the pages of history as a disadvantage to having a president so far removed from sordid fan-nish affairs that even the grapevine doesn't reach him. However, Redd also came up with an admirable solution to the difficulty -- that I name a teller, and then, just in case, an alternate teller.

Lo, Rick Sneary, you are the teller. This gives you your annual chance to propagandize on behalf of South Gate in '57, or whenever it's supposed to be.

And just in case Rick, planning to plunge back into actifandom in order to swing more votes for his con site, announces his candidacy for one of FAPA's posts-- Van Splawn, you take over as alternate teller. What? You wanna run also? Look, which is more important, a mess of measly egoboo for you, or providing FAPA with a teller?

Gosh, it's great to wind up this onerous presidency. Mebbe now I'll have time to write something for the mailings!

-- ARTHUR H. RAPP.

P. S. It's rumored that Richard Eney is running for v-p. He's a loyal Roscoeite; how could he lose?

/This is impropaganda! Bob Silverberg is also running for v-p. He is a loyal Foo-Fooist. That's how Eney could lose! -- OE.]

POSTMAILINGS TO MAILING #59 (SPRING 1952)

33. Sounding Off! (Ray C. Higgs)	V.1, N.1	Spr-Sum 52	S	10
34. Terozine (Margaret Rose)	V.1, N.1	3d qtr 1952	S	10
35. Chaos (Lee Jacobs)	#1	Spring 1952	S	26

Total postmailed pages: 46. Added to the 332 pages distributed in the regular bundle, this makes a grand total of 378 pages for FAPA mailing #59.

The Biblio Press, 1104 Vermont Avenue N. W., Washington 5, D. C., announces the publication of a bibliography of H. P. Lovecraft, "a scholarly listing of the stories, novels, and miscellany by H. P. L. and of works about him," compiled by Joseph Payne Brennan of the Yale University library. It is a "self-covered pamphlet" of 14 pages, 5½" x 8½", done on letterpress. Price: $1.00. (Let's hope this free plug doesn't set a precedent. There are too many book publishers around these days!)

REPORT

A brief explanation of the three columns following your name and address is in order. Column "A" is the month your membership expires. Column "B" shows how many pages you still owe to meet minimum activity requirements for renewal of membership. In the last one, Column "C", the letter "X" means you owe the pages listed in Column "B" either in this mailing, or within 45 days in a postmailing.

The letter "D" means you should pay $1.50 before the next mailing, while the letter "F" means you have only 45 days to pay the $1.50 for renewal. Needless to say, a combination of "X" and "F" should make you get real hot, for there is almost nothing between you and extinction as a member of this organization.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE FANTASY AMATEUR PRESS ASSOCIATION

/Adopted 1947, effective 1 January 1948/

1. FUNCTION: The Fantasy Amateur Press Association operates in the general field of activity which has grown up around interest in fantasy fiction. The quarterly mailings distribute to its members material written or published by members.
2. MEMBERS: Not more than sixty-five persons can be members of the FAPA at any one time.

Membership is open to anyone who can show as proof of his interest in fantasy amateur activity either (a) contributions in the form of verse, drawing, fiction, or non-fiction writing, published in two fantasy amateur publications not produced in the same city area or (b) position as editor or publisher, not merely nominal or trifling, of at least one issue of a fantasy amateur publication.

The credential must have been published within the year prior to acceptance of the application. When vacancies occur, the secretary calls on the applicants first on the waiting list to cite credentials and pay dues.
3. RENEWALS: To be eligible to renew his membership, a member must have published or had published in FAPA mailings or postpostings during the preceding year at least eight 8½" x 11" pages or equivalent. The time limit for renewal is 45 days after the posting of the fourth mailing under his current membership.
4. FINANCES: To pay the FAPA's operating expenses, dues are $1.50 per year(*), paid at time of admission or renewal of membership. Contributions are accepted and surplus stock is sold. If there are insufficient funds to cover expense of the next mailing, the secretary-treasurer can announce equal assessments on all members, sufficient to pay for it, and members not complying will not receive that mailing.
5. MAILINGS: The official editor sends out identical bundles to all members immediately following the second Saturday in November, February, May and August. When individual members, or the official editor as an individual, send postpostings to all members, they are considered part of the mailing they were too late to go in.

Members are not obliged to distribute their fanzines through the FAPA, but all items included in the mailings are produced at the publisher's expense and are free to members, being considered exchanges. The publisher must send to the editor at least sixty-eight copies of publications intended for the mailing. These publications may be printed, mimeographed, hektographed, photographed, or reproduced in any other way which gives a sufficient number of identical and legible copies. They must represent to a substantial extent the work of the member who has put them in the mailings. While some relation to fantasy is desirable, there is no restriction on the type of material included except lawfulness. The postage on postpostings is not to be paid by the treasury.

(*) Amended from "...dues are $1.00 per year," effective February 1950.

6. OFFICERS: The following officers are elected:

(a) The president has general direction of the FAPA's affairs. He appoints members to fill vacated offices, and auxiliary officials for purposes not otherwise provided for. He has what power is necessary to deal with situations not otherwise covered by the constitution.

(b) The vice-president succeeds to the presidency in case it is vacated. He also gives interpretations of the constitution after two or more sides of a controversy over construction have been presented.

(c) The secretary-treasurer receives membership applications and renewals. He keeps track of members' standings in regard to sustaining activity. Each quarter he sends the official editor a list of members' names and addresses, description of credentials, report of income and outgo, and other information within his department. Notices of candidacy for office being sent to him, he furnishes the official editor information for preparing the ballot. He keeps the FAPA's funds separate from his own in cash or deposit. At the end of his term the secretary-treasurer turns over the records and funds to his successor.

(d) The official editor is charged with assembling and posting the mailings. He publishes ballots and the quarterly official organ, The Fantasy Amateur, at FAPA expense. The official organ contains the reports of the various officials and other material at the official editor's discretion.

7. ELECTIONS: Elections are held by mail. Candidates whose names are to appear on the ballot file with the secretary-treasurer in writing. The ballots are included in the summer mailing.

All votes to be counted must be in the counting committee's hands a month after the mailing is dispatched. This ballot counting committee notifies outgoing and incoming officers and all candidates, of the full results of the election within two weeks after the ballot deadline. A plurality is sufficient to elect.

Officers serve for one year. No person can be elected to the same office, except the official editorship, more than once in five years. The secretary-treasurer must be an adult.

8. AMENDMENTS: Amendments to this constitution must be proposed in writing, endorsed by four members. Copy with signatures is sent to the president, other copies to the other officers. The proposal in substance must be given in the official organ the mailing before it comes up for vote. Unless the president orders a special vote, amendments are voted on at the annual election. A majority of the members must vote on an amendment, and a majority of such voters must be favorable, for the amendment to be adopted.

9. BY-LAWS: By-laws may be adopted at any time by a majority of the members endorsing a copy of a proposal which has been sent to the entire membership. Such by-laws can expel members, remove officers, override officials' acts, suspend sections of this constitution, or do anything else within the sovereignty of the organization. On endorsement by 12 other members, a member's failure to meet sustaining activity requirements will be waived on a particular occasion.
