AD RESPONSE, CIRCULATION, RATES-ALL UP

Most advertisers during the last 3 months are reporting incredible response, some selling over 95% of listed items. Paid subscribers are approaching 800 in spite of over 100 so far not renewed subscribers from Dec. issue. (Mostly comic collectors?) Advertising campaign being stepped up in several new pro and fan publications, tho we already mail out over 100 specifically requested sample copies. And this Feb. ish is just 2 pages short of a 50 page issue, the biggest issue since we took over. The extreme tediousness in collating a 48 page issue is the hardest part. Denver commercial rates to type stencil and run 1000 copies & supply paper is $18. We do just that, plus collating, stapling, addressing and posting. These facts, in addition to usual up-keep of files & equipment, plus extremely low basic subscription rate warrant the raise in basic display rates from $7 to $9 per page. And we're still convinced we can print and distribute your ad to a better market than you can for less money and effort than you can on your own! Try a display advert and see.

(As I have said before in the FC, "The Complete Checklist of Science-Fiction Magazines", New York, 1961, printed booklet by Bradford M. Day is an absolute necessity for all collectors of SF and related magazines! This checklist is still in print ($1.50 ea.) and in 1964 Brad issued a 6 page supplement titled "Revisions & additions to CCSFM, but it is out-of-print. Brad says he'll probably bring the entire thing up to date one day, but for the moment, the 1961 edition is it. But for the time being, he has given permission for us to reprint the "Corrections" portions of the 1964 supplement, just about all of which applies to the pre-1961 omissions & errors. — The Editor)

REMEMBER UNKNOWN?

The greatest of all fantasy magazines started publication in March, 1939.

NOW, on the 30th anniversary of this superior pulp magazine, Deeper Than You Think devoted an entire issue to Unknown and the men who made it great.

Deeper Than You Think is entirely photo off-set. This issue features a portfolio of four of the famous artist Edd Cartier's best, reprinted from Unknown. These four full page illustrations are printed on heavy stock suitable for framing.

Deeper Than You Think believes that professionals should talk about pro-zines. In this issue devoted to Unknown, there are articles by the following authors: Eric Frank Russell, John W. Campbell, H. L. Gold, Jack Williamson, Lester Del Rey and L. Ron Hubbard! All of those articles are original pieces, written just for our fanzine, all for the honor of Unknown.

Deeper Than You Think features several other unmentioned goodies as well. Why not get a copy and see for yourself? This issue, No. 3, is now on sale. Price: $1.25, which includes postage & handling. A mere $1.25 for a superior tribute to Unknown. This is a limited printing.

THE BEGINNER'S COLLECTION

This is a complete collection of the published fiction of Edgar Rice Burroughs. That is, 76 tales of fiction. 28 Tarzan, 12 Mars, 6 Pellucidar, 5 Venus, and 25 misc. tales. 69 of these tales are in hard cover books, while 7 of them are in 4 pocketbooks (Swords of Mars, Apache Devil, Mad King & Girl from Hollywood), 2 booklets (Efficiency Expert & Girl from Farris's) and 1 magazine (Scientists Revolt.) Of the other 69 hard cover books, 22 are first editions and 47 are hard cover reprints. Thirty of these books have dust jackets, and all but 3 or 4 are in good condition, while several are in excellent condition.

To be more specific, there are 6 McClurg firsts (including the multi-illoed-by St. John-T. Terrible, Untamed, Thuvia, Jewels & Beasts), 10 first ed dust jackets, and 2 scarce British first editions. T. & Golden Lion is the hard to find G&D photoplay edition. The downright rarity of 4 of these items is well known: just try and find copies of Girl from Hollywood, Oakdale Affair & Rider, Bandit of Hell's Bend, Deputy Sheriff of Comanche County and Scientists Revolt. These 5 tales alone are worth the price for the entire collection!

BUT THERE IS MORE!!! In addition to this complete set of ERB's fiction, you will get: Tarzan & Tarzan Twins, rare Volland edition (3rd) with many full color illos; Tarzan of the Apes, 1933 Whitman Big Little Book, complete set of 8 TARZAN & LEOPARD WOMAN (J. Weismuller, 1946) movie cards, Pic. History of Tarzan movies, and a 2 lbs box full of misc. Tarzan comics, pocketbooks, movie items, clippings, magazine serial parts, fanzines, etc. etc.

Truly, this is an incredible, once-in-a-lifetime offer. PRICE: $115 plus shipping

THE CONNOISSEUR'S COLLECTION

This is a complete collection of the published fiction of Edgar Rice Burroughs, all in Very Fine or better first editions! There are 68 true first editions of ERB works, containing 75 tales of fiction, the remaining one in magazine form only. This set contains forty-two (42) first edition dust jackets, all but 2 in beautiful condition, and including ten (10) A. C. McClurg original dust jackets, each worth more than their weight in gold. (The 10: Jungle Tales, Terrible, Untamed, Golden Lion, Ant Men, Lord of the Jungle, Chessmen, Master Mind, Eternal Lover and Mad King.) Of the remaining non-McClurg firsts, 3 never had jackets (Efficiency Expert, Girl from Farris's & T. & T. Twins with JBJ, Golden Lion), and 4 don't: Tanar, T. & Lost Empire, Jungle Girl and T. & Lion Man. Thus, some extremely rare first ed. djs remain: Volland T. Twins, Lad & Lion, Land of Terror, Back to the Stone Age, Girl from Hollywood, and several others. AND, this collection also contains an "acorn first edition" of Tarzan of the Apes (in addition to the regular first), and it's in Very Good condition.

Having personally visited the important private ERB 1st ed. collections (Vinson, Coriell, Clopton, Hyde and others), it feel this is surely one of the top 5 collections in the entire known ERBurroughs fandom.

BUT THERE IS MORE! In addition to this collection of 1sts, there is a complete collection of reprint editions, each in Very Fine or better condition, and most in original dust jacket—in fact, the 23 1st eds not in dj are matched by 23 reprint that are in dust jacket. These reprints total 67 books, as only one ERB title (Deputy Sheriff) has never been reprinted.

This collection also includes all 4 major reference works (Heins ERB Biblio, Fenton biography, Lupoff commentary, Essoe movie book), Illustrated Tarzan Book #1, a sampling of 25 foreign editions, comic books, Big Little Books, ERB fanzines, etc.

This is not a collection for the timid or the poor. PRICE $1995 plus shipping.

CAS appearances in little ("literary") magazines and fan magazines

CAS appearances in anthologies, as early as 1914

All of these, and more, are described and offered for sale in a printed catalogue (listing 44 items and giving bibliographic information never before published) and a first supplement (items 45-146). Both catalog and supplement (and any later supplements) will be sent (by air or first class mail, depending on geography and my postage stamp supply) for $1.00, which is deductible from any order.

AFTER ST LOUISCON - WHAT?

HERE'S WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT HEIDELBERG IN 1970:

"The convention is going to be big. Much more so than many people are imagining. And it is going to have a world-wide attendance that hasn't been matched...

"I want to see the con going to Germany. I think it will be a blast. I have met fans in Stockholm, Frankfurt, Holland and the English and I think they will put on a real fun type convention. Especially the Germans."

-- Billy Pettit

"German fandom is active with several English language fanzines and of course Tom Schlück was a fabulous TAFF representative. You have probably met several other German fans who paid their own way over to cons & found them interesting people. And language is no problem: I was at the 1965 Frankfurt Con & just about everyone there spoke English... Imagine 3 to 5 weeks in Europe, touring the castles, meeting British fandom on its home ground, etc...

-- Ed Meskys

HEIDELBERG OFFERS YOU:

An opportunity to meet fans and pros from England, Ireland, France, Germany, Holland, Austria, Sweden, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium, Scotland, and all over Europe.

A bi-lingual convention program, with simultaneous translation of major speeches, accomodating both English- and German-speaking fans.

All the WorldCon traditions: costume ball, awards banquet, Guest of Honor and TAFF speeches. And a uniquely Continental touch: Franz Ettl's Bavarian Night, a cruise on the Neckar, wine-tasting, a tour of student pubs, a banquet in a castle!

An occasion to enjoy the trip of a lifetime -- to combine a voyage to Europe with the most exciting WorldCon ever!

WHO'S BEHIND IT ALL?

The HEICON Committee consists of: Chairman Manfred Kage, Vice-Chairman Thea Auler, 1966 TAFF winner Tom Schlück, Hans-Werner Heinrichs, Volker Marckardt, Dieter Steinseifer, and Gert Zech. Their American representatives, the American Committee for Heidelberg in 1970, consist of: Chairman Fred Lerner, Lon Atkins, Banks Mebane, Ed Meskys, and Roger Zelazny.
