- EDITORIAL -

As this is being written, it is very evident that we will end up with another late issue -- just how late we are unable to say as we are still waiting for the arrival of a shipment of paper, now long overdue, that must have gotten mixed up in the holiday rush.

In order to get back to a normal publication date, we will make this issue a double number: December-January. The February number should then have the regular mailing date of the first of the month. We hope to hold this schedule in the future if at all possible, so the regular deadline will apply as in the past.

We know that a great number of our readers will join us in expressing regret at John Vetter's decision giving up Kadath Books and his column "Famous Fantasy Artists". While actual reader response to the latter was not large, as far as letters to the author was concerned; we personally received much favorable comment in our own correspondence. We hope that a good rest will enable John to resume at least part of his abandoned activities in the not too distant future.

We still seem unable to find time to prepare an issue larger than 24 pages; this month, again, finds a very "tight" number... Charles Kearns fine column (and our own house advt!) being victims. We hope to prevail on a recently acquired better half to assist us in a more substantial way than good advice; if we are successful, more pages will be a very definite possibility...

And, as a final word, a very Happy and Prosperous New Year to you all....!

HOOHAH! FANTASY JOURNAL #3 IS OUT! #2 was a smash success, a complete sellout! There are none left! #3 is even better, but we are still limited to a 90 copy printing. If you want one, send today! This is a real treat, something you won't want to miss! For the real honest-to-goodness horror film fan, it's a must!

Our headliner is a jumbo feature on the Hammer Films, bringing you right up to date with the Phantom of the Opera. Robert Bloch has a lot to say about hack writing and for the first time, we are running a short story! Those who saw or missed the Chicon will enjoy our capsule report on it, written by one who did attend!

FANTASY JOURNAL - 975 Oak Drive - GLENCOE, ILL.

- SWAN SONG -

After a great deal of consideration, I have decided to give up KADATH BOOKS. For the past year or so, it has taken up so much of my time that I was beginning to feel that I had been exempt from the Constitutional Amendment that abolished slavery. Seriously though, it has been a great deal of fun and I've made quite a few very good friends. I don't regret the hard work involved.

I am still very much a Lovecraft collector, and would like to receive offers of interesting items for my collection. I will answer all such.

Everyone who has credit with me has been sent a refund check. Those customers who have paid me in advance for copies of THE LOVECRAFT COLLECTOR'S LIBRARY can count on receiving it just as soon as it is published. It is now promised for sometime in December--I sincerely hope it will not be postponed again.

I have also decided not to continue the FAMOUS FANTASY ARTISTS series--I have only received two letters about it, from a circulation of more than 300--a response of less than 1%. From all appearances, hardly anybody is actually reading it! To those who did write, I can only say, thanks for your support. May the Elder Gods bless you all!

WE NEED ARTISTS

to illustrate stories for a brand-new science-fiction/fantasy/horror comic book titled FANTASY ILLUSTRATED. This comic book is being conceived by Bill Spicer and Joe Vucenic in an effort to bring back, or create, an exceptionally high quality in the field of science fiction comics. We are looking for "amateur" artists who might like to try their hand at illustrating adaptations of top notch short stories by such authors as Ray Bradbury, Robert Sheckley, Avram Davidson, Arthur Forges, Damon Knight and so on. Production of FANTASY ILLUSTRATED will be of the highest quality in both content and appearance, so if you are an amateur or semi-pro artist who likes to read and draw science fiction or fantasy stories, this is your chance to do some work for a high-calibre semi-professional publication.

Specification for FANTASY ILLUSTRATED are as follows:

SIZE: 8-1/2 x 11, 32 pages, printed offset-litho throughout.

COVER: 4-color

INTERIOR: Black and white

BINDING: 2-staples thru center fold line, same as standard comic book binding.

LETTERING: All caption and balloon lettering is done using the LeRoy Tool method. The editor and publisher furnishes all contributing artists with pre-lettered sheets of Strathmore drawing paper, as well as paying postage both ways for shipment of artwork (Scripts are furnished to artists)

PRICE: 5 issues for $1.50, or 35¢ per single copy. Published quarterly.

Contact: Bill Spicer, 100 Valencia Road, Aptos, California FANTASY ILLUSTRATED

WANTED TO BUY - Playboy Magazines ... I want good condition back copies of PLAYBOY and prefer consecutive runs of one year or more.

I will make a good offer to anyone having a complete collection of PLAYBOY dating from the first issue. If I cannot find a collector with the complete set, I shall purchase back issues and build the collection myself.

I am especially interested in obtaining the first issue of PLAYBOY ever published: Volume 1, Number 1 - December 1953.

In Summation, I'll give preference to collectors having consecutive runs, however, please write if you have any PLAYBOY mags from 1953 to 1955, or any consecutive runs of six issues or more up to 1960...
