

THE BRITISH SCENE

by

C. R. KEARNS

This month sees the arrival of T. G. L. Cockcroft's "Index to the Weird Fiction Magazines". Publication was first announced about two years ago, in duplicated form, by Fantast (Medway); since then no more had been heard from it. This first edition is printed by John Milne Ltd., Ouba Street, Wellington, New Zealand for Mr. T. G. L. Cockcroft, Lower Hutt, New Zealand and is available from Mr. Cockcroft or Fantast (Medway) at 17/6, plus postage.

The book runs to 56 pages, 6-1/2 x 9-1/2 inches in size, with a glossy paper cover -- being a reproduction of Virgil Finlay's illustration for THE FACELESS GOD by Robert Bloch, Weird Tales, May, 1936.

This is a handsome production, indexing stories by title and is designed to enable one to locate a story or other item in any issue of the titles covered, quite easily and quickly. Magazines covered are: WEIRD TALES, STRANGE TALES of Mystery & Terror, STRANGE STORIES, STRANGE TALES (English), THE THRILL BOOK, ORIENTAL STORIES, MAGIC CARPET, GOLDEN FLEECE. Noticeable absences are GHOST STORIES, TALES OF MAGIC AND MYSTERY and WITCHES TALES.

First comes a magazine listing, issues, page counts, size and price, following this is a listing of editors, then the main part of the work, starting with a seven page listing of magazines, issue by issue, with name of cover artist and title of story illustrated, followed by a fascinating page of "Some General Notes", full of interesting comment on stories and authors -- wherein we can pick up such tidbits as THE CHURCHYARD YEW was not really written by Le Fanu and THE HORROR FROM THE HILLS incorporates Lovecraft's VERY OLD FOLK and much, much more.

The "Index by Title" runs from page fifteen to fifty-three, followed by a list of pseudonyms; the "It Happened to Me" series; pictorial features by Finlay and coye; a listing of serials by title and summary by author, plus a special listing of Seabury Quinn's articles and stories in WEIRD TALES; as a sort of a bonus there is a short listing of some books and magazines which have reprinted stories mentioned in the index.

"The Index" is printed in clear, readable type in spite of so much information being crowded onto each page. It is a monumental work which could have only been compiled as a labour of love by someone who was completely dedicated to his task. Many readers will remember Cockcroft's contribution, an addenda to the Carter glossary, in THE SHUTTERED ROOM.

I. F. Clarke of Glasgow University is embarked on quite a writing programme after his TALE OF THE FUTURE and is now collecting such books as O'Cluny's THE MERRY MULTIFLEET and THE MOUNTING MULTICORPS, among others for his projected "Future Wars", and has just written a guest editorial for NEW WORLDS called "SF and the Ragnarok Theme"... about end-of-the-world stories. Speaking of Nova Publications... SCIENCE FICTION ADVENTURES has folded; Carnell can now concentrate on NEW WORLDS and SCIENCE FANTASY.

Arthur Sellings' TELEPATH is coming out in hard covers, re-titled (by him) THE SILENT SPEAKERS. Arthur, who has a very wide knowledge of the Fantasy and S.F. fields and looks upon himself as a sort of antiquarian futurist, has promised to write an occasional column for 'Fantasy Collector'.

Does anyone out there collect mystery pocketbooks? I have about 240 mystery pocketbooks from the 1940's and early '50s, in good shape. I'll trade for SF or fantasy prozines in good or better shape, all periods. Will also sell, but any REASONABLE offer to trade will be given precedence. Otherwise, do anyone of you know of a "Mystery Pocketbook" fandom? I'd appreciate being informed about it. These have cluttered up the house long enough... send me your wants and trade offers....

A Progress Report:

The Reader's Guide to Barsoom and Amtor

In the few weeks since "The Reader's Guide to Barsoom and Amtor" was announced in a mailing to 250 members of the Burroughs Bibliophiles, almost 100 orders have been placed, and they are still arriving almost daily. In view of this interest, we have decided to extend the offer to a wider public, including the readers of THE FANTASY COLLECTOR. Here is the information.

"The Reader's Guide to Barsoom and Amtor" will be a mimeographed booklet dealing with the planets Barsoom and Amtor -- Mars and Venus -- as visualized in Edgar Rice Burroughs' series of books detailing the adventurous life on those two worlds. The main feature of the Guide is a 15,000 word study of Barsoom by David G. Van Arnam. Accompanying this study is an 11"x17" foldout, two-color map of Barsoom, by Larry Ivie. Mr. Ivie contributes an additional 5,000 words on the topic of the geographical problems posed by the ten Mars books.

The Guide will also contain a study of Amtor. Mr. Van Arnam is currently engaged in preparing this material, which will include an index of all place-names mentioned in the Venus series. The existing Mars study contains a similar index. Other material in the booklet includes an Introduction by Donald A. Wollheim, and a Publisher's Preface. The cover has already been printed: it is a fine copy of a Roy Krenkel drawing, set on Barsoom and never before published anywhere. There will be no logotype or other print on the cover, just the Krenkel. The Guide will be mailed unstapled for the convenience of any reader who wishes to frame either the Krenkel print or the Ivie map.

"The Reader's Guide to Barsoom and Amtor" is both a literary and a visual treat for all Burroughs fans, and is certain to become a collector's item in coming years. Barring unexpected delays, it will be published in June, 1963.

The price is $2 per copy. A "first edition" print run of 200 copies, numbered and signed, is anticipated, and orders will be filled in a first-come sequence. There will be additional printings if demand warrants. To order a copy, please use the coupon below.

TO: Dear Sir:
Richard Lupoff I wish to place an order for the forthcoming booklet titled "The 210 E. 73rd St Reader's Guide to Barsoom and Amtor." I enclose $2 in payment.
New York 21 NY I understand that this publication is scheduled for June, 1963, but that it may be delayed beyond that date.
