SUBSCRIPTION STATUS - Your subscription will expire: _____.

- EDITORIAL - ab. 120

The previous issue, which finally ran to 34 pages, just about strained our rather limited production facilities to the limit. A tally would reveal that over 6000 sheets of paper would run through the mimeo (twice), be inspected, collated, stapled, folded, addressed, stamped & finally sorted & mailed, using nearly $40 worth of postage. Most credit will have to be given to BLB, who did the major share of all the above listed operations and still found time to up date and revise the mailing list.

We believe that we have finally corrected all but a very few of outstanding expiration dates -- we would appreciate very much if you would check the code on the address label on this issue and compare it with what you believe to be balance of your subscription. The code, found on the lower left corner of the label consists of three figures separated by dashes in this manner: 4-9-64. Ignore the first figure and the last two gives the month and year of the last issue due on your current sub. We have checked our records carefully, but errors do crop up, so let us know if your figure differs from ours. We will continue to use the "Subscription Status" line to indicate an imminent expiration date.

In the few lines remaining, will try to add a few names to the list of new subscribers, started last month: Dr. J.F. Autry, E.W. Bennett, Alan Berger, Lucile Coleman, Edward Gee, Jack Hammer, Richard Johnson, John Maule, Curtis Pracht, Rich Rubenfeld, Jerry Sackett, Geo. Sahr, Frank Schott, F.A. Scollo, Arthur Sellings, O.M. Short, Joe Sidney, Alan Simons, Larry Sipe, Danny Sizemore, Broox Sledge, Fred L. Smith, Joe Smith, Roger C. Smith, Mrs Anna Snodgrass, Billy Spencer, Bill Spicer, Roy Squires, Mickey Steinborn, Manas Sternschein -more next issue...

DO YOU REMEMBER.....??

Toby Wing, Vera Hrubá Ralston or Maureen O' Sullivan as "Me Jane!"?? If you don't, now's your chance to get acquainted; if you do, you can become reacquainted...

I have just picked up a large supply of movie magazines, including "Film Fun" - 1932-42; "Movie Humor" - middle 30's; "Real Screen Fun" - middle 30's; "Allure" - middle '30's and others. Prices vary according to age, but all of these are in phenomenally good to fine condition, with both covers, etc. Send a self-addressed stamped envelope for prices & listings.

Also in this lot, a large number of the magazines that made the Swinging '30's swing.... Including "Paris Nights", "La Paree", "Gay Parisienne", "Pep", "Ten Story Book" and many other single copies of others. The dates of these range back as far as 1927 and extend to about 1938. Again, they look as if they had just come off the newstand at the corner and prices vary. The listing of these will be included with that of the movie magazines listed above.

Thirdly: a group of 1950-53 SF & Fantasy magazines at 25¢ each; these include "Amazing", "Fantastic", "Planet" & a few "Weird Tales", etc. Write for listing. Please specify this group or the film mags as I'll make two separate listings.

And in conclusion, I have one copy each of "Spicy Detective" - May 1935, Vol 3, #1 and "Spicy Adventure" - March 1935, Vol 1, #6. These are very good to fine and I'd like to trade them for good copies of ERB's "Back to the Stone Age", "Lad & the Lion", "Deputy Sheriff of Comanche County", "Tarzan Twins" or "Land of Terror".
