-- EDITORIAL --

This month's issue will be in the nature of a breath-catcher for us. After quite a series of larger than normal issues, some running ten pages over the usual page count, in the past few months, we are happy to come up with a bit of a breather in this one. The new mailing list is finally finished & we certainly hope that no more than the normal number of errors will appear in it. Please let us know if mistakes are found in the addressing of any of this month's issues so corrections can be made as soon as possible. We will continue to add Zip codes as you send them in, this make take some time to accomplish now the master list is finished, however.

We are indebted to Gerry de la Rec for a copy of "The Bergen Record" containing the obituary of Frank R. Paul, who died at Teaneck, NJ on June 29, 1963. His name may be unfamiliar to the younger fans, but to the old timers his illustrations for the old Gernsback "Amazings" as well as many other magazines of the era, contributed greatly to pleasure received from "dawn age" SF. His illustrations of machinery were particularly effective and his covers (more than 200 were to appear during the pioneering years) were a newstand landmark for the SF addict of the era. In 1961, on the 35th Anniversary of "Amazing Stories", Mr. Paul and Hugo Gernsback were guests of honor at an Eastern SF Association meeting.

BLACK LANTERN BOOKS
4237 Graceland Avenue
Indianapolis, Indiana 46208

This is to inform all that the senior partner in Black Lantern Books, Mr. J. Crackel, died July 20th. I hope to continue the business, with a new listing ready in October.

At present, I am engaged in inventorying Mr. Crackel's personal collection, consisting of some 3,000 hard cover volumes, making up one of the finest collections of fantasy items in the United States.

The following three lots have been authorized for sale:

Lot I -- The Crackel collection of books, including the following:

- a) All the Arkham House titles -- all in dust jackets except for H.P. Lovecrafts' "Beyond the Walls of Sleep".
- b) Timlin - "The Ship That Sailed to Mars", the most beautiful and one of the scarcest of all fantasy titles.
- c) Cory - Montezuma's Castle & Other Weird Tales.

Mr. Crackel considered the above his most prized items. A complete author-title list will be ready September 5. The books will be sold to the highest bidder, whose bid is received on or before October 15th. Shipping charges to be paid by the purchaser. If desired, books can be inspected -- please arrange for an appointment.

Lot II -- Weird Tales -- 96 issues from January 1939 to final issue. 3 issues missing from the complete run -- all have front covers except one -- to be sold to the highest bidder.

Lot III -- Fantasy and Science Fiction Magazine -- Complete run, all issues in excellent shape -- sold to the highest bidder.

HELP ! ! ! !

I am writing an article for Arkham House publication -- in order to make it complete, I MUST have a look at a copy of TALES OF MAGIC AND MYSTERY for March, 1928. For identification purposes, this issue contained the first appearance of H. P. Lovecraft's COOL AIR.

Don't one of you nice people out there have a copy of this issue, that you will sell, trade, loan, or let me have a look at? I've been searching for a year and a half, and have yet to locate a copy or even anyone who has seen one.

If you have one, and won't sell it (Damme if I blame you), will you let me pay the postage and insurance on it both ways? I promise to take good care of it -- in fact I'll treat it like a girl friend!

 lengthy to mention--that also are available. If you have any particular want ask and I will let you know if I have it. These are in good shape and can be had for 15¢ or 2 for 25¢. Any ordering under $2.00 will have to be charged postage. Of course it will all be on a first come first serve basis so some titles may be gone, in which case you will be notified. Don't be alarmed by the margin & the rights. I'm not too good on the typewriter.
