in which Dave Van Arnam finally gets a monkey off his back and retrenches back to just one weekly fanzine from now on...

EASTERCON!

MIDWESCON!!

WESTERCON!!!

This represents the beginning of a new year of weekly fanpublishing for me. I doubt if there was ever before a fanzine which published every week for a solid year. Some of it's been pretty bad, some's been little more than 'eh', and I'm rather happy about a few things -- most of all, the egoboo I've gotten out of it.

But...another year like this one? I'm sorry. Forget it. I'm cutting the silver cord.

I suppose I shd have called this LAST DRAFT. I suppose I shd have had a long explanation at least.

But it all boils down to the fact that I hope that what I'm doing will indicate that (at long last) I'm sane...

This hasn't been well-said. But true to my tradition, it's been FIRST DRAFT to the end, and this is it. Hoping you are the sane...
