

the gallant gallstone

JACK HARNESS, 330 S. Berendo, LA 5, Calif, The Labyrinth DuQuesne, Phone DU5-1259: IZRM.

The Voice of Radio Free Zkpa'a'dorn comes your way once again with probably the shortest pail of woven worms in captivity. Like all that wonderful partying around over the long New Year's Weekend means less time than usual for the Gallant Gallstone. Howsom-ever....a few comments nonetheless:--

FRED WHITLEDGE: Still think it always takes two to make a quarrel?

Dwayne Kaiser came over on Sunday on his way back to his abode in the sticks (a rather Oxygen-poor settlement on the Throxus) and commented that Gee, here I was the only one at the Lab who was friends with him. I said yes---and proceeded to show him some of my WHAT TO DO WHEN DWAYNE KAISER COMES material I have for future issues. The Bird is Cruel, c## One nice thing about New Years: it gives one a chance to make a resolution. I made one; I hate nobody nohow notime nowhen nowhere. Clean slate. ## There are no sneaky provisions or hidden qualifications to that clean slate. Like, Happy New Year!

The latest issue of ANALOG is out, and the color cover was most reassuring. The previous issue had a black-and-white illo for the cover, with ANALOG printed in red on it...like something that Doc Lowndes might have run in one of his later issues, right, gang? And it made me wonder what the March ANALOG would look like, so here is my exprophecy on it:

ANALOG

