

As you'd imagine, the task of writing the AUTHOR, NOVEL, AND EVALUATION NUMBERS of each evaluator over and over is becoming a bit cumbersome. To avoid this repetitiousness, I've assembled the lengthier listings, assigned letters to their authors, and placed them behind the names of the books they evaluated. Thus if you want to check out Marty Massoglia's listings you'll find them followed by the letter A. Here is the key :

A= Massoglia, Marty	S= Scherer, Rome
B= Burns, Stan	T= Thornhill, Ira
C= Crist, Brian	V= Covell, Ian
F= Jakobcic, Fred	W= Weinkauff, Mary
H= LaFeur, Cathy
J= Bohman, Jerry
K= Keller, Don
L= Stefl, Suzi
M= Resnick, Mike
P= Pigaga, Thom
R= Schwartz, Richard

GUYING GYRE 7/8 (part two) TALK/TALK continued

A few loccers have commented that it would be a hardship to assemble a list of all the titles they've read. Well, now you don't have to. This section really contains the names of the VAST majority of modern SF books available in the past thirty years. Why not put your own evaluation numbers (sharply in a bright color) beside the names of the books you've read and send this section of GG back to me. After I've recorded your PPENS, I'LL RETURN IT TO YOU. (If you have a friend who might be interested in helping, send me his name; I made up extra copies of this section for such a contingency.) Oh, if you've previously contributed your PPENS but have read several books since last writing, why not send me a listing of the new ones?

A couple of my correspondents have been surprised that I'm a Swann fan. I really don't know whether I am or not! Aside from one of his short stories in a fanzine I've never read and Swann. (That doesn't show a lack of desire, more a lack of time.) My interest is in the man. To an earlier edition of GG he responded warmly of his pleasure that students were reading and often enjoying his work. The letter was so humble and appreciative, I decided to ask more of my students to read his work so they could respond to him. Soon after this he wrote saying he had terminal cancer. I decided to honor him while he was still alive. Swann knew of my plans; it's a shame they culminated too late for him to see the results. I liked Tom Swann: I responded to his pride in his own work, responded to his pleasure in communication, responded to his humanity. So. My efforts in planning this Dedicatory Issue were not as much to the writer Swann as to the gentle man Swann.

I owe a special debt of gratitude to Robert Blenheim and Cliff Biggers (who wrote articles especially for this issue) for their warm and insightful approaches to Thomas Burnett Swann, author and gentle man.

PERSONAL PREFERENCE EVALUATION CHART

- 95 -- one of the best books I've ever read
- 85 -- excellent/superior
- 75 -- good/enjoyable/recommendable
- 65 -- above average
- 55 -- average/satisfactory/readable
- 45 -- below average
- 35 -- poor/weak
- 25 -- bad/terrible
- 15 -- I couldn't finish reading it !

FINE TUNING: Let's use 75 ( good/enjoyable/recommendable ) as an example. You may substitute for the second number (5), a 6,7,8, if you wish to suggest the story was extremely good, particularly enjoyable, or highly recommended. Go downward from 5 ( 4 Or 3 Or 2 ) if the story was pretty good, rather enjoyable, or mildly recommendable. ( Avoid using 0, 1, or 9 as a second number.)
