

Hombren #44 is another of those fanzines published by Rich Mann, 240B So Nevada, Grand Forks AFB, North Dakota 58201 (Only Maybe Not) for Apa-L 47, 9 September, 1965. It is ROMPress Publication No. 88, but Len Bailes, that don't mean nothin' because I did it early. Ahahaha. This is a fanzine for Ted White.

THE CARTER BROWN COLLECTOR part 2

Last Week, I circulated a little list of all the Carter Brown mystery books that I need to complete my collection of the things. A little thinking on my part has shown me what a silly thing this is to do -- I have had Experiences, Jack Harness, with sending money to LA for books. I still have not received my copy of WELL OF THE UNICORN which you "sold" me so long ago.... A little more thinking on my part (it was an effort) brought to mind the list of Carter Brown books I have been keeping, which is almost in publishable shape. Almost, I said. Well, what's to keep me from asking in Apa-L for the little information that I need to complete the thing? Nothing. So I'm publishing the list in its partial form here and asking for the rest of the information from such stalwarts of the mystery collecting world as Ted White, who will be sure to see this. I didn't get much response on the lists I asked for information on here along time ago, but I shall try again. I know nobody talks about stf, but maybe mysteries will be exempt from the curse.

All these books say original publication in Australia, in hardcovers, I believe, and the Signet-New American Library editions generally are re-titled. All the books I have bear the line, "Published by permission of Alan Yates," which may or may not mean anything. The books themselves are a series of series. Brown writes of Al Wheeler in most of the books, with Holman and Boyd close behind. Al Wheeler is a Southern California police detective with some odd methods; Danny Boyd is a New York private detective; Rick Holman is a Hollywood trouble-shooter; Mavis Seidlitz is a gorgeous and rather stupid busty blonde detective's secretary, who is always getting involved when she shouldn't; and Larry Baker is a Hollywood Comedy writer. There are others like Andy Kane that have so far appeared in only one book, but there could have been a follow up among the books I lack information on. The books have undergone reprinting, to keep up the monthly appearance on the newsstands. Signet also puts out Canadian editions, upon which I have no information.
