

House of the Games #23

BPP #69----Heading by Lynn Pederson.

Dwain Kaiser, 1397 No. 2nd Ave., Upland, California

PLEASE NOTE: Yes, please note the above change of address. This is the first BPP to carry it, the now that I'm certain I'll be moving, I'll backdate a little and change the addresses on all my zines which I haven't printed yet.

What can I say? I'll miss Vegas like hell. My parents never really liked the city, at least my Mother didn't, but I always did. In fact the only thing which will cause me not to miss Vegas so much is the fact that Lynn Pederson is moving to the L.A. area at the same time. He's going to a art college in this area. It looks like there is no longer much of a Vegas fandom, only a few fen are left, and none of them are overly well known or active. Scott Bell, a Vegas fen yo, might remember from the Westcon which he made, lives in Vegas but spends most of his year at college out of state. In fact I believe that he and Lynn Pederson will share a room together, and be going to the same college in L.A. Bob Davenport will still be here, and he alone will be keeping up Vegas fandom. There are still a few fringe fans, but very few, and their promise is yet to come.

Right now all I'm doing is finishing up my zines. I have several on handz which I want to get run off before I move, several others I want to finish. Then I'm trying to get a few issues of DEATH AND THE BNF, and THE HOUSE OF THE GAMES finished so I'll have something to run through APA 2 while I'm getting settled down here. Or should I say down there? I should since as of this moment I'm still in Las Vegas, will be for another week, but that is not too long a period of time, and time does travel fast when you don't wish it to.

It looks like my fanac will be changing. Before now it has been mainly corresponding, publishing and such. Now I'll have the LASFS only a short distance away (don't laugh, it is a short distance after living in Las Vegas, tho I'll admit I'm not about to be walking into the meetings) and should be able to make many more meetings than I have been able to before. Then of course there are other fen around, gosh.... I've never really lived where there haven't been other fans around (even tho it took work to get them around me in Las Vegas) but Los Angeles is just coated with fans, like hundreds of them.

But then L.A. should be sad too, for one reason I'll now be making meetings (hopefully) at least once in a regular while, and when I do you will suffer under all sorts of things, like me trying to join you in InterApa (or sell you a extra InterApa mailing), and since I'm a N3F type, and you don't happen to be a member.....?
