FROM MIKE

This is number one of my new slime sheet telling of the activities of me and my friends and circulated among my clique and also sent to such trufans as Archie Mercer and Chuck Harris. No charge.

It's called "Fantasy and Jazz Fen" because it's sent to fantasy and jazz fen and I couldn't think of a slick latin title. Other publications by me, in case this reaches the hands of a trufan I don't know are "Burroughsania" "Book Collector's News" and "Mood/Doom" in conjunction with Bruce Kidd and Jhim Linwood. I like the following authors Edgar Rice Burroughs Poul Anderson, Anthony Boucher, M.J.Moorcock, Sprague De Camp, Robert E. Howard and Otis Kline and many other fantasy writers also Bret Harte, Mark Twain, P.G.Wodehouse, Zane Grey, Frank Richards, Anthony Skene, and Kinsey. If you've got any of these authors works send 'em along. I like Ellington best of all jazz diggers - September Song is my favorite pop. tune. My main aim in life is to bring out as many fanzines at once as possible (this is at present, Later I hope to become a pro-author).

The following is from other trufans expressed by Mike Moorcock.

FROM "WITTY"

I want to correspond with trufan everywhere. I like Burroughs best of all fantasy writers. I don't dig jazz. I'm, like Mike, and OBB fan.

FROM "BRUCE KIDD" (Why the inverted commas - you may wonder 'cos I'm not telling you). I am a Bradbury and EC comic fan. I dig modern jazz and do one side of "MOOD/DOOM" (the Mood side). I draw illos. for a lot of fanzines including "Burroughsania" and "Archive". I like Tarzan. I want Brad yarns.

FROM JOHN WISDOM I don't dig jazz. I'm a Burroughs fan in a big way and hope to get all his stories in time. If you've got any contact me. I like to write stories. The first one I wrote was "Sojan the Mercenary" but Mike (the ++++++) lost it and wrote it himself. I've written about three other stories in full.
