ED M. CLINTON, Jr. - 1955

In a "prenatal" period (c. 1946) before he was born as a pro, Our Hero published an unforgettable book, Puzzle Box, under the pseudonym of Anthony More. A certain Forrest J Ackerman has selected the title story for anthologization in his forthcoming collection, MR SCIENCE FICTION SELECTS.

Eddie's "Overload" was the lead novelet in the Oct '53 Startling.

His "Small World of M-75" in the July '54 IF immediately resold to Groff Conklin for his forthcoming anthology, S. F. MUTANTS.

"That for a Hermitage" appeared in the Xmas '54 issue of Fantastic U.

Eddie is a past Director and Secretary of the LASFS. Known as "the amenable fan", we look for him in the near future years to become as popular in the professional field as he is on the home front with his fellow fan.
