

LITTLE LE ZOMBIE

Spasmodically for FFF Weekly

by Bob Tucker

NO. 3

GO WEST !
TO L. A.
NEXT YEAR

MOOM PITCHERS DEPT: Recommended for your film fare this year: Columbia's Here Comes Mr Jordan, a fantasy if there ever was once. The hero of the opus is bumped off in the first reel, and spends the rest of the picture wandering around, trying to gain an entrance in some other body. He is given no little assistance from a Person, because in the first place, the hero's death was an error, traceable to the Person's headquarters.

(2): Universal has announced for December release, The Wolf Man, based on a favorite human failing, lycanthropy. They modestly admit that the picture will put Dracula and the Frankensteins in the cellar to stay.

BOOK DEPT: Steve Fisher's book, I Wake Up Screaming, is being filmed, under the title, Hot Spot. (2) Stanton A. Coblentz has had a new book published. It's (hold your breath!) Triumph of the Teapot Poet.

FANS DEPT: Reinsberg is out of the CCC already. Received an honorable discharge when he bulldozed someone in Chicago for a job, and presented proof of same to the Camp. Now working for the Park Board in Chicago, the new address is 5480 Cornell Ave.

(2) Received a post card from Dale Hart the other day, and was surprised to find he had been in town (Bloomington) hunting me, without success. He is now located at 1039 N. Clark, Apt. 17, Chicago; and is working in the Edgewater Beach Hotel.

(3) Former Michigan fan Bill Brudy is now located at Scott Field, Ill. He's in the air corps, and the full address is: Pvt. Wilfred J. Brudy, 34th School Squadron AC, Scott Field, Ill.

(4) Former Ill. fan Sully Roberds has been transferred, his new complete address is: Pvt Clarence Roberds, Btry "B", 28th Btn, CATB, Camp Wallace, Texas. (He sent me a request for all old stf mags available, and said there were a dozen stf hounds in his company.)

JUST THINK, DEPT: We modestly admit that Le Zombie (Sr.) is a wow in every army camp it circulates. It goes to readers in four or five of them, and each of the readers report that everyone else in the vicinity reads each copy untill it falls to pieces. Oh happy day! (Of course, you would never suspect this is a plug, and that you can get a copy of LeZ for 5¢ from Box 260, Bloomington, Ill.)

EDITORIAL DEPT: After reading the article on "How to be a Hack" writer (June 1941 Spaceways), we suspect that the author, "Pumphandle J. Snort" is just that. Either a hack writer or a hack editor. We are no great shakes as an author, and know it, but we would ten times rather follow the advice of Jack Woodford than Pumphandle Snort. The article reads exactly like the writer's requirements for a low type stf magazine. As if, you might say, the real author of the article is the guy who edits Capt Future or Amazing Stories . . . or writes regularly for them.

RUMOR DEPT: There is no truth to the rumor that Los Angeles will hold the convention next year underwater, in an effort to preserve the illusion that it never rains out there.