And how many people recognize the song references above and ... can mame the movie they came from?

I've started attending classes at Sant-a Monica College. A COUPLE OF Dingra-ling professors but it should be alright. I'm taking all evening and night classes to enable me to work during the days. (I should st-art working as a cashier/counter man at a local drugstore in about a week) A physical education class is required. The only ones offered at night are Girl's Tumbling and Beginning Badminton - Coed. (that is, the might I have space for it, theyere the only ones). So, naturally, Beginning Badminton. 1-3 service. "...And it's a high clear to the back alley..."

The March issue of the National Lampoon has a number of neat little articles. Including the "St-ranger in Paradise" article and the "California" article. The reason I bring it up is another article -- The Adventures of A CONNECTICUT YANKEE. The art is done by someone named Kaluta who I believe is a fan -- at least the name is familiar. I think even with the jumping around that it is a very enjoyable sort of strip. Take a look at it.

KPFK (a local FM radio station) is about to start a marathon. Now UCLA groups have 30 hour movie marathons but this is a 31 day marathon. 24 hours a day. Most of the 744 hours are going to be re-brodcasts of old radio shows. I'm not sure of exactly what is being done, though I should be getting access to a schedule soon. I know they are starting off with FRANKENSTEIN and then DAY OF THE THIFFIDS. Should be interesting.

CHARLIE JACASON II: I think I like the funny animal and Chick And Wilbur (or Chicken Wilbur as I first thought of them when you told me) strips better. And I prefer the F.A. strips to Chicken Wilbur.

A COUPLE NON-COMMENTS I FORGOT ABOUT UNTIL RIGHT NOW!

The following is quasi-qouted from a r ecent Newsweek:

AL CAPP SEX TRIAL
Al Capp was arrested in Eau Claire, Wisc. on three charges Sodomy, Attempted Adultery, and Indecent Exposure. His lawyers and the District Attorney made a deal and Capp was was found guilty of Attempted Adultery (a misdemeanor) and fined #500. The charges were brought by a Eau

(2) I attended the ASIFA-WEST annual party/showing. ASIFA is an acronym for the French for International Animation Ass sociation. This was a showing of Pornographic Cartoons. Most of these are made by regular companies -- animation companies, that is -- animators when they have nothing to do. /A number of them are extremely gross and most are very funny. One EXERCE piece -- that may have been an unfortunate choice of word -- entitled EURYNOME was extremely good. It was the old myth of the female and serpent joining/coming together to form the great egg from which the gods/world/etc. came from. The main action was the girl awakening, meeting the snake, having intercourse with it and forming the egg -- which hatches and populates the world with animals and humans and machines .-man soon uses an atomic/hydrogen/??? bomb to destroy the world and we XXXX have XXX a shot similar to the opening one -- desolation (and how is that for a run on sentence?). The animation was stop-motion type. Clay figures. And the animation was excellent.

J. I. SCHUMEISTER: What can I say? It was a very enjoyable strip.

GUY H. LILLIAN III: I'll see if I can find out who drew the camel if you can find out what the name of the aboriginal Martian race was on Space Patrol. Call it someone else's obsession.

ED BUCHMAN: Hi Ed. Glad you decided/were presueded to stay.

Don't get putrid and try any preverse spellings like that one about being suwde later. Let's us Ellayers plot to take over the apa. (Hi Guy)

DON MOURE: Night Gallery is quality horror? Boy are your tastes weird. I'm interested in your response to a question I asked in an earlier Koa: What are your 10 favorite films?

MARK VERHEIDEN: You think hotsler cartoons are easy to draw?

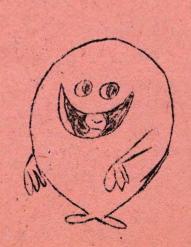

Bill has been doing them for years and they can be drawn quickly by him. Try drawing one yourself -- try drawing it well. It ain't easy. What kind of lettering did you want on the sign?

The cinema class I was teac ing has ended.

Nothing major came out of it -- in fact, it was pretty bad. However, I ddd show them -- them being the powers that be, natch -- where to go to save money on renting films and getting information and speakers &tc.

The result is an increase in budget for futur-e classes and a lot more material.
