Folk, once again, due to personal and professional obligations, I have to close with this, the last issue of Na Mele. It's possible that at some point in the future, I will revive my newsletter. In fact, it's almost certain. But for now, I have to say Aloha and thank you to all of you who have given love and support over the past several years. I've met a lot of great people, and I will continue to cherish and hold dear those friendships. You all know who you are.

For those of you who are able to go to Portland in November for Orycon and meet Esther Friesner, do so! She's a wonderful lady and a terrific author! Also, a good friend.

And if any of you are ever out this way, don't be shy. Stop by and see me sometime!

For those few of you who still have a portion of a subscription left, I will refund some money to you. In parting, I ask you all to remember such folks as Colleen Lashway at Waldenbooks in Ward Warehouse, John Hughes, Nancy Davis, Denise and Clay Park, the folks at Firebird Arts and Music, the entire Portland Gang (all of you!), Ambria Ridenow, Lynne Luerding, Cecelia Eng and Andrew Nisbet, III, Misty Lackey and Larry Dixon, Heather Alexander and Larry Warner, Ellen Guon and Leslie Fish, Tom Payne, Pat Apodaca at Quicksilver Fantasies, the Creaseys of Random Factors, Queen's Own Fanclub with Judith Louvis, Esther Friesner, James David Audlin, Space Opera House, Bowling Green State University, Rick and Deborah Weiss of The Filking Times, and all the others who helped make this publication such a success. May our paths always be bound together!

Aloha no!
