Above & to the right appears an illustration of an early Dirigible Airfleet attack during the Napoleonic Wars of the early XVIII Century on Time Track Gamma (IF, February 1966, #99, "Not By Sea" by Howard L. Morris, p.81). ("Prisoners of the Sky" by C. C. MacApp in the same issue is also largely concerned with Dirigible Airfleets!)
