I suppose some sort of information is necessary for this issue of POOJA, lest you think I've gone Walter Coslet on my fellow OEPAns.

POOJA #10 should have gone into OMPA #22. After the Detroitcon we had high hopes of energy in the CFG. I got my con report & Dale Tarr was going to write up a brief bit about our Investment Club within the CFG. Stan Skirvin was going to do something & Lou Tabakow was going to write "The Grey Launsmen". He got as far as re-reading Doc Smith's book; this took 6 weeks to do & I quit trying to embarrass him by even mentioning it, anymore. Dale will probably do the Investment Club bit for FIRST FANCON MAGAZINE & Stan has gone GAPIA. He's been to 1 meeting since the Detroitcon. I still see him at color slide meetings of the Camera Club, though.

Thus, by the time POOJA #10 got published it was too late for #22.

This issue all got started with me deciding to make up a list of my phonograph records for insurance purposes. Decided to type the list up on Nitto masters as I went & to run off enough copies to supply OMPA. If my list is ever destroyed, there should be one in somebody's OMPA file somewhere.

Took me about 3 weeks to sort out the records & then type up the list. Yesterday, I found 2 45 rpm Extended Play records that I'd forgotten about. In looking over the list I was somewhat surprised to note that I had so many actual collector's items. I always picked up what I liked & apparently I had good taste 20 years ago. Right now, the storage problem is the big thing. If I could ever enough cash value out of the 70's I'd sell them in a minute and buy Ip's with the money. In fact, storage is the big problem with all types of collectors, today.

Some OMPA mass cards stand out in my memory: Archie, Elia Parker & George Locke, and Brian Burgess' photo card.

A Partial Review of OMPA #22

A L'Abandon I doubt if any convention date will suit everyone. I just think that a holiday week-end such as Labor Day or July 4th is a lousy time for any convention. No rule says you have to have it then, it's just something each con committee is afraid to change. After all, they don't care; they don't have to travel to that con.

Archive..... Mike Moorcock's article was a welcome relief from the "Search For Sney's Fault" type of writing you've done so much of, which I think has been a complete waste of good talent.

rupe.... Why don't all your people who want to give Mescaline a try, get together and take it. Since it takes a few hours for the effects to take hold that'd give you time to take the bus to visit Sanderson and let him observe the effects first hand.

Erg.... You went all out with color changes! A neatly duplicated zine. Not much meat to it, though. Artwork, layout & headings very nice.

Griffin... Probably the best item in this issue is your Notes From Undercover.

Marsolo. I started to skim through Hamlin's JUSTICE, but found it interesting enough to go back & read it.

ParaFANalia.... I found your "The Vandering Ghu Plode On.." absorbing to read. I'd like to see you continue this in your next issue. Thanks for the nice good wishes mentioned in your 1 pg insert.

Satan's Child... I voted against your proposal. Sorry we can't see alike. I'd be interested in learning the background of your reasons for proposing this.

Steam... Well, looks like a little Bulmer will arrive the month a little Skirvin arrives. It will be something to remember when your 2nd one arrives...will you go to the hospital, then? One thing is of interest to the CFC; Ken had a small pocket screwdriver when he was over here. He used it to clean his pipe bowl, pick his teeth & clean his finger nails with. What sort of role will this indispensable tool play during the birth? Maybe he could drop it into a pan of boiling water while waiting for the Doctor to arrive. Doc Barrett has often said he thought Ken would be lost without it.

Wild Pambles... I always like to read con reports. Each person has enough of a different version to make it sound like a different con. I'd say that Detroit was about the best covered convention, from the point of con reports, for many a year.

Morph... Rollings a bit thin this issue, but I imagine you are coming near the end of the saga & will have to stretch it out a bit.

Fanmark Greeting Cards... HJO does a good job of sparking off energy in others. I've often wondered what'd happen if other clubs boomed like L.A. has been doing recently. Could fandom stand it? Such activity might be too much.

Off-Trails... Glad to see you put out two ballot sheets. Rather amazing that Leman, Madle, Hall, Pauls, Faine, Brown, Champion all would not come up with their dues. The mailing arrived intact, but envelopes are the best. Strong envelopes, though.
