*** EDITORIAL ***

n time ,I hope. There were a few ADS that just didn't make the deadline, and will be in the May issue. Nothing can be done after you have the K-T stapled together.

Have some good news, tho. DALE R. SMITH 3001 Kyle Ave Minncapolis, Minn, will be helping out on K-T work. He is a dealer in Books and Magazines. Why not send him a card about your WANTS?

FREE! ONE YEAR K-T

***THAT'S RIGHT !!! ONE YEARS SUB TO KAYMAR TRADER IF YOU SEND ME ONE DOLLAR AND JOIN THE SCIENCE FICTION CLUB. YOU GET THE DOLLAR BACK IN BOOKS. THREE OF THEM! ! * * * * *

You simply CAN NOT LOSE in a deal like this .....I am already a member and have obtained all the books, (10 ) I was interested in. at only 1.15 complete, each. (when I joined I got THREE books for the joining dollar !!). READ THIS; --

1. Send your dollar to me, to join us in the club.
2. Select THREE of the six books listed here.
The Martian Chronicles by Ray Bradbury
Stars like dust by Isaac Asimov
The Day of the Triffids by John Wyndham.
Astounding Sci.Fiction Anthology
The Puppet Masters by Robt. Heinlein
Double Jeopardy by Fletcher Pratt
3. Ask for one years FREE Kaymar Trader.
4. You will get your 3 books direct from Garden City, N.Y.
(actually a 9.45 value)

Here is some vital info about it all.--

- * Each monthly selection will be described in advance in the "Things to Come", the clubs free bulletin.
- * For each book You accept, pay only 1.00 plus postage (15¢).
- * You dont HAVE to take a book each month. (like many club ask)
- * You can pick as few as FOUR books during one year.
- * In case you DO want to drop out, you can do so after taking only the 4 books. (I know you will pick more than 4, I did)
- * You can stay in the club as long as you wish, and even get TWO books of each title (but no more)

( I have been a fan since 1945, active that is, and this is the first deal that I can say is tops with me. I have enjoyed all of the books and they are neat, have D/J and will look real nice alongside those 3.00 books you already have. (You will find these are really 2.00 and 3.00 editions.)

This is your chance to get in early and pick up those books at the lowest rate possible, and also get one years FREE sub to KAYMAR TRADER.

I am also curious to see how well this ad takes with all my subscribers. It will help K-T in getting advertisers if I can show some results from this AD.

SEND THAT DOLLAR TO:

A GRIPE AND -

AN OFFER -

You all know what fan editors are!

I've sent away a goodly amount of dough which has vanished into the maw of fanzines which have folded by the time my green gets there.

And from most of these lights of fandom I receive no intimation that my cash has been received and spent - much less a copy of the zine or an apology for scrounging the sub. At other times I receive a few issues of some fanzine of which I've never heard, and it turns out this I am receiving instead of the somewhat superior pub for which I subbed.

But I am still interested in fanzines.

The safest way I can think of is this;

If you are a struggling fanzine editor and want CASH for a sub (no trades) send me a copy of your latest effort. This will be paid for in CASH in any case. Along with the sample - which will be paid for in CASH - send a list of back numbers available and how much for the lot. Also some intimation as to whether you will still be in business a week later when my subscription (CASH) arrives.

I am also interested in complete runs of extinct fanzines (for which I will pay CASH) so if any burnt-out has loads of Quandry, Pan Demos (and related zines) etc., etc., which he or she wishes to dispose of for CASH write me a letter.

All three for $4.

Ogden's Strange Story, Marshall, 1st ed. mint, no d/w This is one of the more scarce prehistorics. An abridged edition was published in F.F.M. $2.
In the Morning of Time, Roberts, 1st ed. excellent, no d/w Published in the twenties, this is one of the best prehistorics I've ever read.

Roberts, incidentally, was a Canadian poet and novelist. Scarce. $3.
Pandaemonium, Richard Bovet, Hand and Flower Press. This is a beautiful book first published in 1684, the present edition printed on rag paper, with a frontispiece and title page reproduced from the original. The book purports to prove the existence of witches and spirits, and was written when the general public firmly believed in such things. In our more enlightened times it is still an interesting subject. There are but nine copies of the original edition of this book known to exist. It deals with the fall of the angels, seduction of the human race etc. With a cabalistic design on the cover. $4.

The Golden Rooms, Fisher, 1st ed. Very good, no d/w An exceptionally literate prehistoric which does not deal in wild guesses. $1.

Death Goes Hunting, Chris Massie, 1st ed. Mint with d/w The story of what happens to a murderer after he is hanged by the neck. The city of Troy and the Trojans who are all dead. $2.

PEGASUS

SCIENCE FICTION

675 Delno Avenue, San Francisco 12, California, United States.

Dear Fan;

Because You're reading Kaymar, you're a fan. And it has been a long established fact that fans buy fanzines. And, due to a slight coincidence, I just Happen to have one for sale.

You and I both know that there are so many fanzines saying that theirs is the best 'zine ever to be published, and that you really can't live without it. I, and I'm sure you too, am about sick of this. True, every fan thinks his zine is special, but some of the ads for fanzines are next to fraud. Therefore, I shall tell you what my fanzine looks like, and I shall refrain from using glowing words.

The name is PEGASUS Science Fiction, as you can see above. It is printed, in multi-colour. The art is a combination of multi-lith, and mimeographing. It's printed on expensive book-stock paper, and stacks up fairly well. I plan to have about 20 pages per issue. It is, by the way, 6x9 inches. Cost? Well, we feel that it's more than reasonable considering the cost of all of the other quality publications. Only 15¢ per copy, or 4 for 50¢. It is as you can well guess, quarterly.

Material is by, or rather (Since we're not using names, for the sake of using names) is: PAULA, by Don Howard Donnell; SPORTING EVENT, by Fred Malz; BACKWARD PLANET, by John G. Fletcher; THE SEEKERS, by Bobby Gene Warner; Plus a score more fiction. Articles and columns: SCIENCE FICTION, MATURITY & THE CARDBOARD PEOPLE, by Mari Wolf; HARMON IN REVIEW, by (Guess Who?) Jim Harmon, plus promised material by Knapheide, Silverberg and Bloch. Poems by the score, so I wont mention them. Art by Malz, Bergeron, Carr, Capella, Steward (Bob L.), Carr and a zillion or so more.

By the way, we'll have a large letter section, about 4 pages. And for you fans that do/don't like fan fiction, there'll be only about 4 pages.

As a last minute note, I forgot to mention that I just obtained a story by Robert E. Gilbert, pro at large, called THE DISAPPOINTED ROUND. Nice.

I Remain. . . .

Sincerely Yours,

Gilbert E. Menicucci
