THE BRONZE BOX - Cowdrick. MUNSEY MAGAZINE Apr. 1894. A man inherits a bronze casket marked open.....(a certain date). The author builds up suspense well, and at the proper day he opens it. The protagonist thinks he sees a little mouse leaving it, which he strikes. It swells up into the form of an enemy whose soul some remote ancestor imprisoned in the box, then dies from the effects of the blow. EXC.

A FLIGHT TO FREEDOM - Rath. THE MUNSEY MAGAZINE May 1912. Misfits cannot stand the complexity of the aerial society of the future flee to a refuge for such. First treatment of them I can find, it is worth reading despite a hopelessly dated future and equally dated treatment of the theme.

RED O'ROURKE'S RICHES - Eggleston & Richardson. CAVALIER Mar. 2-9-16-23-30-Apr. 6-13-20- 1912. A hidden civilization on a desert mountain with a veritable El Dorado civilization. Fantasy is incidental.

THE MONSTER FLEA - Knight-Adkin. PEARSONS Feb. 1906. A huge model of a common flea is endowed with the leaping properties of that animal proportionately. Pretty good.

MORE NEWS OF THE HOMEBIRD - Hodgson. BLUEBOOK Aug. 1907. A giant octopus attacks a ship in the Sarasso. Chiefly important because of its connection to the same author's THE BOATS OF THE GLEN CARRIG in setting.

TOM EDISON JR, 'S ELECTRIC SEA SPIDER - Phillip Reade. THE NUGGET LIBRARY Feb. 11, 1892. High adventure with an electric spider that goes chasing about the sea in the best of Frank Reade tradition.

THE MAN IN THE AIR - Keates. THE SCAP BOOK May 1906. An antigravity device goes haywire, sending its operator into outer space.

IN SATURN'S RINGS - Tyson. A man is teleported to Saturn, which he finds to be populated by Saturnians and by Earthmen whom the Saturnians cannot perceive. He succeeds in returning, only to find that a Hindu has taken over his body. Disembodied, he occupies several friends' persons; thereupon ensues a most confusing mess of words, that never seem to mean anything. SCRAP BOOK Sept. 1910.

THE ONLY MAN ON EARTH - Kentnor. Disease exterminates the population of earth. Very good.

THE DEVIL SHIP - Couzens. CAVALIER Feb. 17, 1912. Not fantasy.

THE DEVIL LIGHT - Wallace. ALLSTORY July 22, 1916. A young man classifies lights as to color, etc, until he gets white, the abominable which he cannot stand. He becomes a zeppelin officer, but a white search light kills him.

A DEAL IN INVENTIONS - Pladwell. ALLSTORY Jan. 5, 1918. The only fantasy is a motivating attempt to steal a new device.

OLD DOG, NEW TRICKS - Robbins. ALLSTORY Jan. 19, 1918. Psychological.

THE PEOPLE OF THE GLACIER series: THE GREAT COLD, ALLSTORY Nov. 1, '19

THE PASSING OF THE GREAT COLD, Dec. 20, 1919; FIRE, Jan 3, 1920.

THE COURSE OF CAVE LOVE, Jan. 17, 1920; WINGS AGAINST CAVE WALLS,

Jan. 31, 1920; A NEWER DAWN, Feb. 14, 1920. All these depict the trials, tribulations, and achievements of a Neanderthaler civilization.

((M. McNeil is doing a very nice job with Sec 5,6,7, and has managed to build up a reserve of copy that will cover most of the year 1955. So watch for it in each issue of K-T. THANKS MIKE!!!!))

A SYMPOSIUM STYLED COLUMN CONDUCTED

By

DONALD SUSAN

In recent years much ado has been made by various authors and collectors concerning what constitutes the basic science fiction library. This has been in keeping with the rise of science fiction as a literature of its own, peculiar to itself. But fantasy, a variety of imaginative literature far older and far more varied and general in its categorical range has been rather ignored. In keeping with the trend I shall consider science fiction as something apart from fantasy and devote this column to a discussion of what constitutes the basic FANTASY library.

Twenty-five books was the number I selected as being most convenient as a basic library...but in the listing ten books of the twenty-five are chosen as a group to be more necessary than the others.

August Derleth, a noted author, publishing director of Arkham House (the fantasy publishing firm), and very noted collector, offers the following list NOT restricted to twenty-five. (Admittedly, twenty-five was arbitrarily chosen as that number of books that costs from $75. to $100, a fairly arbitrary calculation.)

1. COLLECTED GHOST STORIES by Olivier Onions
2. TALES OF HORROR AND THE SUPERNATURAL by Arthur Machen
3. GREEN TEA AND OTHER GHOST STORIES by J. Sheridan LeFanu
4. UNCLE SILAS by Sheridan LeFanu
5. THE PURPLE CLOUD by M.P. Shiel
6. THE MOON POOL by A. Merritt
7. WANDERING GHOSTS by F. Marion Crawford
8. THEY RETURN AT EVENING by H. Russell Wakefield
9. THE WING IN THE ROSEBUSH by Mary E. Wilkins Freeman
10. THE TALES OF Algernon Blackwood
11. COLLECTED STORIES by Ambrose Bierce
12. THE KING IN YELLOW by Robert W. Chambers
13. THE CROCK OF GOLD by James Stephens
14. THE UNFORTUNATE FURSEY by Merwyn Wall
15. GHOSTS by Edith Wharton
16. THE WORM OUROBOROS by E. R. Eddison
17. THE MONK by Matthew Gregory Lewis
18. THE OUTSIDER AND OTHERS by H. P. Lovecraft
19. COLLECTED GHOST STORIES by Montague Rhodes James
20. TALES OF MYSTERY AND THE IMAGINATION by Edgar A. Poe
21. OUT OF SPACE AND TIME by Clark Ashton Smith
22. THE LADY WHO CAME TO STAY by R. E. Spencer
23. ALICE IN WONDERLAND by Lewis Carroll
24. DRACULA by Bram Stoker
25. FANCIES AND GOODNIGHTS by John Collier
26. THE WONDERFUL WIZARD OF OZ by L. Frank Baum

(over)

--- A BASIC FANTASY LIBRARY ---

- 27. THE WIND IN THE WILLOWS by Kenneth Grahame
- 28. SLEEP NO MORE ed. by August Derleth

BOOKS ON THE BORDERLAND

A COLUMN BY DONALD SUSAN

A part-time column listing books little known to the enthusiast as fantasy or SF, or containing a bare minimum of these elements.

The Ace Double Novel Pb CRY PLAGUE and JUDAS GOAT are, respectively, about bacteriological warfare and dianetics, although the latter is only satirized in an otherwise plain detective novel.

SINISTER STONES by Arthur W. Upfield. (Doubleday, 1954; $2.75)

A detective story set in western Australia wherein the natives use effective forms of divination and threaten to solve the case. Good novel of its kind.

BRIEF CANDLES by Manning Coles. Humorous ghost story.

THE ETERNAL SMILE AND Other Stories by Par Lagerkvist (translated) Random House, 1954; $4.50) Assorted stories of serious intent which deal with various types of afterlife.

THE CAPERBERRY BUSH by Jack Guinn. (Little, Brown and Co., 1954; $3.95) Humorous and satirical work about politics wherein a scientist develops a potent truth serum and administers it to politicians.

CHILDREN OF THE WIND by Burgess Drake. (J.P. Lippincott., 1954; $3.50) A novel narrated by a poltergeist, one of two (who are both unborn children), about the haunted household; serious and moving for the most part.

GRATEFUL TO LIFE AND DEATH by R.K. Narayan. (Michigan State College Press, 1954; $3.00) Novel about love beyond the grave and the happy married life before the death of the protagonist's wife.

ESCAPE TO EDEN by Theodore Pratt. (Gold medal Books..a Pb..1953; 35¢) Scientist discovers how to make plain dirt fission and tries to escape its dangerous threat to his peace of mind by taking himself to an island paradise.

SPINSTERS IN JEOPARDY by Ngaio Marsh (Little, Brown and Co., 1953; $3.00) Dope ring and a cult that combines drugs perversion and black magic; contains a description of a black mass ritual.

GERMAN STORIES AND TALES - edited by Robert Pick. (Alfred A. Knopf, 1954; $3.95) Contains Franz Kafka's Metamorphosis, the tale of man found himself turned into 5ft long cockroach.

DEAR PAUL:

In January of 1955 I am going to visit France, Spain, Italy, England, Ireland, Scotland, Holland, Sweden, Switzerland, Norway, Denmark, and many other countries. I'll spend from several days to several months in each country.

So can I run any errands for you? Can I find any books and mags? Can I locate missing relatives? Can I do anything for you abroad?

Attention, completist-collectors: You want those beautiful magazines and books of a fantastic or scientific nature being published in strange lands, don't you? I can help you.

So far, I've collected quite a number of clients -- various college libraries, Forrest Ackerman, Stanleigh B. Vinson, Ray Bradbury, Dr. C.L. Barrett, Howard Lyons, and others too numerous to mention. Write me at my forwarding address:

314 South Magnolia, Highlands, Texas. Sincerely, DALE HART.

For anyone who will buy $25. of the above books and magazines the premium is 3 copies of 1872-73-74 Argosy (English) backed in old calf and covers also tipped in same, marbled boards. Contains an assortment of stories, articles, e.g. on Shakespeare, Chaucer, the "modern" novel, the early astronomer, Jeremy Horrocks etc Very little fantasy running mostly to detective and the odd ghost story. Two pages missing from one volume. Despite their age these are still handsome books, worn but good. I don't know if this is the precursor of the American Argosy or not. They were published by Richard Bentley, London in 1872-73-74 and edited by Mrs Henry Wood, whoever she is, or rather, whoever she was, since that is 82 years ago. These three books will be mailed to the first buyer to take $25. worth of books and/or magazines.

AND A WORD TO FANZINE EDITORS:

Be one of the first to take part! It means excellent advertising advantages, and you will receive a free copy for your contribution. Just fill out this simple questionnaire. But remember: keep in mind that your answers have to go on a 3 x 5 card for filing. So word your answers as short and accurate as possible.

FANZINE EDITORS, please type or print the answers to the following:

(1) Your name, (2) complete address, (3) the name of your fanzine, (4) Price per single copy, (5) Subscription rate, (6) How else may copy be had (foreign editors, don't forget the American purchaser), (7) How often is it put out?, (8) Do you trade?, (9) Use this to comment on #8 if a simple "yes" or "no" won't do, (10) Do you exchange ads?, (11) Use this to comment on #10 if a simple "yes" or "no" won't do, (12) Dimensions of your 'zine, (13) How printed (mimeo, ditto, hecto, litho, photolith, etc), (14) Approximate number of pages, (15) If it is put out in conjunction with a fan organization, name group, (16) Emphasis placed on (Storys, artwork, poetry, articles, fan news, letters, etc), (17) Special purpose, if any (while it may take storys and articles, it may have the purpose of trading with other editors, be an official organ of a club, help the fan find the particular mag he is looking for, or like the fan material pool where it helps the writer and the editor get together, etc.), (18) Exceptional feature (my card file idea, Shelby Vick's "something up my sleeve", fanzine or prozine reviews, etc.), (19) Special needs.
