Uncle Sam's Post Office

NUMBER ONE

VOLUME ONE

Joe Staton, Propaganda Co-ordinator

Rich Mann, Bomb Squad Director

Has the Post Office been picking on you lately? Of course it has. It picks on everybody. The House UnAmerican Activities Committee dogs the steps of Liberals; the Revenue boys annoy Conservatives. But the Post Office persecutes both. Therefore CALATSOUSPO has been organized to strike at this vicious, bureaucratic monster.

Eventually we plan to have an operative in every city in the whole country (and some soldiers to get the APO's) and when the time is right, our Bomb Squad Director will give the order and all of the US Post Offices will go up in one beautiful explosion from coast to coast. Then we'll set up the Fan Post Office immediately. (We're working on getting an Efficiency Expert to work out the smaller details of that right now.) The FPO will operate perfectly and will not pick on any body. Yes.

However, in the meantime, we are working on plans to impeach the Postmaster General. We haven't been able to find out how to go about it just yet, but we're sure that there must be a way. As Conservatives and Liberals flock to our banners by the thousands, we'll find a lawyer who knows how to get the job done.

But while we're looking into those courses of action, we will operate STAMP, the official organ, as the propaganda arm of the organization. Every three months or so, we'll issue a number with the gripes of those the USPO pounces upon. Strike a blow for Truth, Justice, and The American Way! Bomb your Post Office! Impeach Postmaster Gronouski! (Seriously, please send your stories about the PO to Joe Staton for inclusion in STAMP.) And onward:

"The Doc Savage arrived all right (folded, in spite of your note on the envelope, but apparently not damaged by the handling. Some day I'm going to stick a piece of 1 x 6 board in an envelope, marke it "Do not Fold", and see what the PO can do to that.") ---Buck Coulson.

"CALATSOUSPO is a very definitely needed Organization--do you realize that it's going to cost me 93¢ to send a mailing [for Apa 45] to one of our wl'ers in Calif. who paid a dollar to buy the thing? Gads."---Rich Mann

"The Post Office and I are having a feud, and I'm not sure what I did to draw down the wrath of the Post Office. After all, I use my ZIP code on every letter. It started near the end of the summer. Things started coming opened and mangled. Then things sent from here started arriving opened. Anagram's bundle was opened on the way to the OE of N'APA. [The N'APA mailing] came here about a week after Len--who lives as far as possible from Los Angeles--got his mailing," ---Arnie Katz, Excalibur #5.

"Er, Joe, you may protest quite a bit about the Post Office opening your first-class mail but I really doubt that you'd get anywhere with your protest. The Post Office is about the biggest business in this country and if they want to they can step on the individual as though he were an ant." ---Creath Thorne, The Terrean #3
