

THE GUILLOTINE

Another Guillotine (or poll sheet, if you prefer) is here and ready to be filled out. We'd appreciate your writing your names on these things so we can keep track.

Results: Cover by Keasler: 8 - Editorial by us'n: 9 - I Went To Desert Rock by Charles Allen: 10 - The Surrealism of Luis Buñuel by Elsberry: 8 - Commercialized Fantasy by Ian Macauley: 7 - The Logical Insanity by Ellison: 8 - Artwork and Lettering by Bergeron: 11.

Poll sheets and letters came from: Ev Winne, David English, Dave Papayapulos, Fred Chappell, Donald Susan, T.E. Watkins, Ian T. Macauley, Fred Goetz, Paul Mittlebuscher, G.M. Carr, Betty Jo McCarthy, Bob Silverberg, Richard Elsberry, Marion Bradley, Frank Gorden, Harlan Ellison, Jack Harness, Verna Hampton, Redd Boggs, Bob Featrowsky, Janie Lamb, Jerry Hopkins, Russell K. Watkins, Nan Gerding, Gerry Steward, Richard Bergeron, Anthony De Luna, Eva Firestone, Honey Wood, V. Paul Nowell, Tom Piper, Hal Shapiro and Dave Ish's mother.

Ratings: 0-2: poor 3-5: fair 6-8: Good 9-10: very good 11-and over: almost as good as SFB.

Cover Picture by Ray Capella _____ Artwork by Jack Harness _____
Lettering by Bergeron _____

Tyranny by ye eds _____

The Big Eye by Ev Winne _____

Peril To Our Planet by Forrest J. Ackerman _____

Art Folio by David English _____

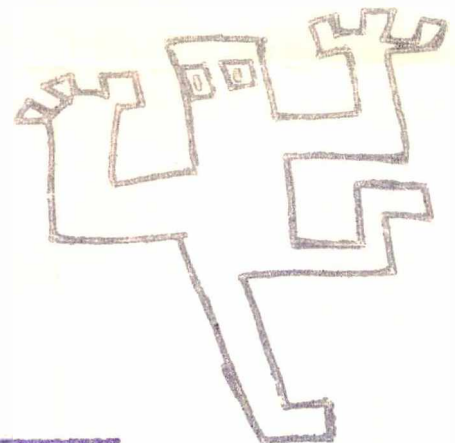

A Visit to the Doctor by Fred Chappell _____

Here Comes a Chopper....by Richard Elsberry _____

Just This Once by Hal Shapiro _____

The Big Whirlpool and Little Eddy by T.E. Watkins _____

Backcover by Jack Harness _____

OH YOU CRAZY
MIXED UP KID!

Some answers to our 'interesting Questions' were intriguing. 'How would you run the NSF if Pres.' brought forth these replies: 1) into the ground 2) 50 miles an hour 3) let Carr run it - she wants it anyway 4) Benevolent Dictator 5) Thank Ghod I'm not 6) What's the NSF?

This issue's question (to be answered after the con): Do you think the choice of the next convention site was wise? Why? Are you going? Why?

"Is that the only dangerous, man-eating animal on Mars?" No, that's the only one that will follow you into the house.

return this sheet to: Bert Hirschhorn, 553 Riverside Drive, n.y. 32 n.y.