Cousin Guy's Early Bird Stats (through the SFPA #228)

First she gets married and now Toni racks up here second "first zine in the mailing" honors. But is this her second "first" or her first "first" as a Reinhardt? Nah, we won't argue that point. An early Yngvi is an early Yngvi.

Not only did Janice Gelb enjoy her trip to New Zealand, but the extra pages she produced to tell us about it helped propel her past yours truly into third place in the Box Scores. Meanwhile, Richard Dengrove was a hair from an average of 30 pages a mailing and Irvin Koch was a hair above the dreaded 2.87 pages per mailing mark. The Keeper of the Box Scores also has decided to poke fun at Jeff Copeland and mike weber for publishing what we'll call half-pint zines — not 8.5 X 11 (or, possibly zines in need of Viagra — we'll decide which insult to hurl at them each mailing).
