of the high price of same. We have Will Bullard to thank for the event. Anyone who has been reading the comic for the past year can think of other reasons for burning it. Several of the George Evans originals for F&A LANDS OTHER DAYS traded hands at the con and we managed to snag one in passing. Billy Saunders got out of the hospital the day before to come to the con. Phil Hawkins brought a lot of his art for display. We enjoyed talking with Phil, Carl Oliver, Roy Lopez, Chris Wrenn, and many more. Overall it was my most enjoyable con in a while. Among those who attended and managed to sign in were: Kevin Lashmit, Steve McHargue, Mike Bost, Chris Wrenn, Steve Squires, Scott Whiteside, Donice & Leon Howard, Lester Brin, Jerry Minter, John Hitchcock, Brian Lockhart, Bob Bradley, Kent & Viva Kerr, Steve Keeter, Paul Stone, Eddie Lasky, David Matthews, Clay Kimball, Norman Hunter, Ken Puryear, Russ Gharwood, Jim Weston, Mike Pugh, Peter Hirschman, Michael Starne Steve Shoulars, Walter Miles, Will Bullard, Richard & Mildred Minter, Doug Foltz, Greg Dragos, John Allison, M C Goodwin, Mike Coxe, Brian Hooley, David Southerland, Watson Edwards, Janet Rawlins, Paul Snead, Milton Road, Roy Lopez, Phil & Sylvia Hawkins, Jimmy Wade, David Kelly, Bill Homovec, Ida Thompson, David Massey, Richard Llewellyn, Carroll Credle, Barbara Ward, San Joyner, Carl Oliver, William Allen, David Alan Ayscue, Steve Brown, Doug Ward, Todd Anderson, Mike Cromartie, Eric Larsen, Kernit Campbell, Karl & Barbara Wagner, Jane Fisher, Billy & Nancy Saunders, Denis Wolff, Charles Lawrence, Jonathan Baxley, Drake Maynard, James Ragan, JoAnn Lisowski, Barry Hill, Allen Drum, Tom Cullen, Steve Turner, Charles Bridgers, Carol Strickland, Robert Bailey, Rebecca Weeks, Greg Ogle, Raymond Winstead, Yance Parrish, Terry, & elm. ((not responsible for the spelling of any name above))

I forgot to mention it earlier so I'll toss it in here. The next mini-con after July will be September 24th. This is a week or two earlier than usual so with luck we will miss the baseball playoffs this year.

ONE WEEK LATER Dept

One week after our September mini-con will be RoVaCon II, September 30 and October 1 to be exact, and it looks like a good one. Guest of Honor will be Leigh Brackett and that should be enough for anyone. Also in attendance will be Kelly Freas and Nelson Bond, among others. The site will be the Northside High School in Roanoke, Va the same as last time. For more info write RoVaCon, P O Box 774, Christiansburg, Va 24073. Those responsible are Ron Rogers, Richard Hurt, and Fred R. Eichelman.

FOLKS AROUND HERE Dept

A lot of you have changed addresses in the past few months and here are a few of the COAs we have been sent: Brian Lockhart, 319 Tate St. Apt #1, Greensboro, NC 27403. Nancy Barker, Route 1 Box 328-A, Pittsboro, N.C. 27312. . .The Shadow (and Bulletin) are once again under new management. The new editor is David Kelly, 3113 Douglas St, Raleigh, N.C. 27607. . .Dave Drake's novelette "Nation Without Walls" was the cover story of the July 1977 Analog. . .Karl Edward Wagner repeated as the 1976 winner of the British Fantasy Society award winner for his short story "Two Suns Setting" from the May 1976 Fantastic. He was the 1975 August Derleth short story winner for "Sticks." . .Chacal #2 features a Kane story, "Raven's Eyrie," and a Manly Wade Wellman interview. . .Warner has bought reprint rights to "Darkness Weaves" and has contracted for a new Kane novel. Midnight Sun has folded due to problems with the printer (charged double) and the post office (lost 800 copies of the latest issue) among other reasons. .

THE ARTHUR C. CLARKE CHECKLIST

by Eric L. Larson

The following pages contain the most complete bibliographic information on the works of Arthur C. Clarke that I have been able to assemble. The checklist is divided into six sections.

1--STORIES THROUGH 1971: This is an alphabetical listing of all of Clarke's short stories through 1971. Each story has a number beside it that is later used as a reference number.

2--FICTION BOOKS THROUGH 1976: As far as I have been able to determine, this is a complete list of all of Clarke's fictional works including one book edited by him. Each work is listed and identified as to type. If a book is a short story collection or an omnibus, the contents are listed also. Stories are listed by their index number mentioned above.

3--NON-FICTION BOOKS THROUGH 1976: I also believe this listing to be complete. When I was able to find it, the original date of publication is listed. There is quite a bit of doubt on a number of these. Many of the books have seen revised editions. This, however, is not indicated. You're lucky to be able to locate any edition of some of these.

4--MAGAZINE ARTICLES THROUGH 1976: This is by far the most incomplete of the sections. The data included is accurate, but I am certain there are a large number of works not listed.

5--APPEARANCES IN THE JOURNAL OF THE BRITISH INTERPLANETARY SOCIETY: This is, unfortunately, my only listing of non-U.S. publications.

6--ARTICLES ABOUT ARTHUR CLARKE THROUGH 1976: Over the years, a number of interviews, profiles, and the like have been published. The ones listed here will often appear (at least in part) on flyleaves and backs of books.

I hope this listing will be of interest to many and that it will prove useful. Anyone finding mistakes or having additional information, PLEASE let me know. Write me at: 4012 Colby Dr/Raleigh, NC/27609. If I obtain more information, I'll have a supplement for you, Edwin permitting.

Thanks, ell.

FINAL NOTES Dept

Our cover this time is a special nostalgia piece especially for fans of the old newspaper strips. Back in 1939 the Asheville Citizen-Times built a new printing plant and made a big deal about moving out of the old building and into the new. They had a special section on the new plant and their history. To help celebrate they contacted a lot of cartoonists and got them to do special congratulatory cartoons. The Alley Oop one on our cover is my favorite of the three pages they had. Other strips included Dick Tracy, Flash Gordon, Moon Mullins, Gasoline Alley, Out Our Way, Popeye, Wash Tubbs, Mickey Mouse, Little Orphan Annie, and many more. Many of the cartoons looked like stock ones done to fit any occasion but some had to be specially done as they included drawings of the building. The Alley Oop could fit into either category.

The logo this issue was done by Nancy Barker for an earlier issue and swiped to fit.
