Dear Jeffrey,

You may take this as an email submission if you like.

I have been home from work for a couple of weeks with sciatica and pinched nerve and severe back pain. Thus I do not have a zine coming to you this week. I should have let you know earlier, but I am distracted as you can imagine and I am doing physical therapy.

Jill and I have discovered THE DEAD ZONE on USA and SCI-FI networks and are watching all the episodes that were on the "marathon."

We kind of liked last week's JOHN DOE. Jill did not care for FIREFLY--I am undecided.

I just stopped by Kinko's to check on mail, but I must rush home and get my back in a different position.

Highest regards, George Wells
