The Gallant Gallstone was received too late for last weeks distribution and is therefore included this time. Inclusion this time is a brochure from the Record Club of America, through the auspices of E. Joseph Baker.

Contributors who are not at the meeting are hereby notified that the editor takes no responsibility for their receipt or non-receipt of any inclusions. The inclusions are given to the person designated to pick up your copy of the mailing, and it is then their responsibility.

Next time we will endeavor to include a listing of the recipients of the previous distributions, so you will know who you've been talking to.

Collation and distribution of this assemblage by Dian Pelz.

We apologise for the lousy typing on the author of Ipzik, which is Lea Bailes, and for the crudding up of Malaise, by Dave Van Arnam.
