IMPORTANT : two weeks from tonight the FISTFA meeting will be at Dave Van Arnem's place. Dave will now give instructions on how to get there: Take it away Dave:

I can't -- I dropped it.

Well, let's start with the swell old address: 1730 Harrison Ave., Apartment 353. Ahem. That's in the Bronx, of course. Subway access: IND D train, 174-175th St stop (same as for Lunarians) or (closer) Woodlawn-Jerome IRT line, 176th St. My place is approx. 3 blocks west of the IRT stop, and is 1 block north of 176 St. Do not be confused by the fact that 176th St. turns into a flight of stairs just east of the IRT. On Harrison Ave, there is a stretch of identical entrances; their only significant differentiation in this context is that mine is the last of these. There is a foyer with three separate sets of stairs up. Two of these will get you to my apt, which is on the 5th floor. The door will be marked. There will be signs and other indicæ downstairs to guide you to the right stairwell. (Or the left one, as you choose. Only the middle stairwell is Wrong.)

Ha! (Our Motto?)
