Bullsheets Media Watch

Multiverse managed to garner a fair amount of media coverage, including articles in the Herald Sun and Age on Saturday 7/9/96, plus a few television news snippets. Most concentrated on the 30th anniversary of the first American screening of Star Trek. On the same basis, Robert Jan and Paula Rusak got the cover article on the Sunday Age Television magazine for their article on the history of Star Trek.

Fan Funds

John Foyster, the first winner of GUFF, has finally published the trip report from his 1979 trip to SeaCon. It runs to 103 pages and is available from the current GUFF administrators Ian Gunn and Karen Pender-Gunn at P.O. Box 567 Blackburn 3130 for $10. (I don't know if that includes postage.) So far it appears that Janice Murray is the only nominee for the 1997 DUFF race, to bring a North American fan to BasiCon Two. Nominations close on September 30th. Nominees require three North American nominators and two Australian nominators.

In Print

The World Fantasy Award nominations for She's Fantastical and "Angel Thing", noted in the BS #60 were reported in The Sunday Age 15/9/96

People

Stephen Dedman's story "From Whom All Blessings Flow" (Asimov's, 4/95) was nominated for the inaugural Sidewise Awards for Alternate History in the Short Form Category. The winner was Stephen Baxter for "Brigantia's Angels" (Interzone 91)
