you know; A BIG HEARTED ONE

So, what would you do if you had an attic full of mimeos,
and about ten reams of paper,
and some ink, and no sense?

Yeah, be stupid and put out a fanzine! I sat me down and started to cut stencils. BUT, I didn't have anything to say. I decided I might just think of something if I did some mailing reviews. So, I did some mailing reviews, and I did them on stencil, and I got a few stray ideas wandering around through my head.

Did I stop and put them down somewhere so I could make an article of them. NO, I squandered them on what was supposed to be the back pages of this huge, beautiful zine.

Well, I could always think of something else in a day or two or thre.

But there's no time left before the deadline, and I'm trying to set an example for future OE's.

The typewriter's all screwed up anyway. Dropped it twice this week; and the carriage jumps up and down with each letter. It sometimes fails to space, giving me two letters overprinted. Tho' it looks like dropping it the second time loosened it up so that it's stopped that.

There'll be no APES OF RAPP this time. No artists you know, and I've decided to add a little text to them anyway.

We do have something special for all the damn fool Republicans in this poor pitiful country!

FARM SECRETARY BENSON DENIES THAT HE USED SOIL-BANK PAYMENTS TO WIN VOTES. THE PAYMENTS WERE A PUBLIC SAFETY MEASURE — TO KEEP FARMERS FROM MURDERING REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES IN THEIR BEDS.
