DEADLINE FOR NEXT MAILING

MAY 10, 1975

I was mildly impressed to find myself numbered among those present at the gala 100th FAPA mailing some years ago, but here it is half again as many mailings later and it seems like no time at all has passed. No fanfare for the 150th, though, as far as I've seen. Funny the importance people place on certain numbers. Some are considered round, others prime, still others are "perfect" or at least used to be to certain cultures. In baseball, a .300 hitter is in a class apart and the poor guy who hits .2999999 doesn't quite qualify somehow. In football, 1000 yards on the ground is a season for a special few, but 999 yeards puts you with the "alsorans."

At any rate, I'm proud to be here for FAPA's 150th mailing, and I consider it a nice coincidence that I participate in it with TRF #69...

Some problems have happened with mail deliveries lately, and I've said a little bit about this on the back cover. For the moment, I am living at the Pleasant Hill address and putting out the mailings from the Walnut Creek house. Mail sent to either address will reach me, although possibly a week or so sooner at the former address than the latter. The Walnut Creek house will probably be sold early this summer, but probably not before the May mailing. Charlotte and I may well move from this address prior to that time...and we may not. At any rate, mail will be forwarded from either address whenever we move. If you have anything dated, or of special importance, I suggest sending it to me at Pleasant Hill.

For this and other reasons, this is definitely my last year as OE of FLPA, at least in this incarnation. It's not too early to file for next year's election, if that is what you are thinking, so don't put it off until tomorrow.

Anderson has been granted a 1 mailing extension on dues and activity because the notice was omitted from the last Fn. Irvin Koch states in a letter that he sent two magazines to Calkins that were never received, and he onclosed copies of them. He is also given a 1 mailing extension.

Dropped: Thompsons (dues and activity). Added: Handfield (Carey, what were those crodentials?); Hughes (Mota); Glyer (Scientifriction).

This is the status of the waiting list as of February 4, 1975. THE WAITING LIST

The * indicates that I heard from you concerning the last FA; a # notes a change of name or address; (1) indicates funds on deposit. Note that a late acknowledgment may arrive between the time I type this and the actual deadline and this can reinstate a person on the list. Doadline for the response to this mailing is 10 May 1975. (Overseas, I take late replies, but don't miss one...) Remember, two misses and you are off. Responses to the FL go to the S/T; COLS should go to both S/T and OE just to make cortain they are included in the FA.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

VICE PRESIDENT'S REPORT FORM NEW STATE

EGOBOO: PURE & SIMPLE

I WAS moodily eating a sidedish of potato salad at Solomon's the other evening. With me, that's much like bandsawing, and I found myself considering the matter of the annual FAPA egoboo poll which I am required, as vice president, to conduct. How to make the poll as appealing as, well, potato salad at Solomon's was the question that nagged my mind. A dozen wild schemes were born before the potato salad was gone. I elaborated so many wonderful plans for New and Better Egoboo Polls that anybody within tendril range would have immediately nominated me for a Hugula Award on sheer ingenuity alone. Each egoboo poll that I thought of was more complex than the last, and the least of them would have required the services of a computer to tally properly.

Complexity is a property that can be loved for its own sake, and I was soon in a high fever of excitement as I concocted a poll in which each member starts out with a certain number of points proportional to the number of words he published in FAPA during 1974 and loses points according to the amount of egoboo he has already received in mailing comments. Voters could give out points only to the number they themselves had won, with extra bonus points to be awarded for pledges that his fapazine will go offset in 1975 or will start reprinting "Bob and Koso" stories.

Then, alas, scmething occurred to me. The egoboo poll of last year, with a fairly complex method of distributing points, lured only eight people to participate. The previous year, as conducted by Harry Warner, the egoboo poll used a "simpler way of voting" and had 19 participants. Perhaps (as HWJr himself suggested) this means that more people will take time to vote in a simple poll than in a complex one. My great ideas for New and Complexer polls glimmered away in the sad melancholy I always associate with The Time Stream, as if a digital timepiece had slipped a cog. I finished my potato salad and signalled the waitress to bring on the prune piroshkis, suddenly fired with the brilliant notion of raking this year's poll pure and simple.

So here's the poll (somewhere nearby) and I hope you're satisfied.

FUNCTION: The Fantasy Amateur Press Association (FAPA) operates in the general field of amateur activity that has grown up around interest in fantasy fiction. Its quarterly mailings distribute to its members material written or published by members.

II. MEMBERS:

2.1 Not more than 65 persons can be members of FAPA at any one time.

NOTIFI

2.2 Membership is open to anyone who can show, as proof of his interest in fantasy amateur activity, the existence of one of the following credentials:

2.21 That he has had contributions, in the form of verse, drawings, fiction or non-fiction, published in two fantasy amateur publications that were not. produced in the same metropolitan area.

. 2.22 That he has been the editor or publisher, in a real sense, of at least one issue of a fantasy amateur publication (fanzine).

2.3 An individual who desires to join FAPA shall send to the Secretary-Treasurer an application stating his desire to join, and citing credentials as described under section 2.2 of this constitution. The credentials must have been published not more than one year prior to the date of the application. The Secretary-Treasurer shall determine whether the credentials are valid; if so, he shall admit the person to FAPA membership on payment of dues. If there is no vacancy and the credentials are valid, the applicant shall be admitted to a waiting list as of the date his application is received by the Secretary-Treasurer. The waiting list shall be maintained by the Secretary-Treasurer and shall be published in the official organ each quarter. Copies of the official organ shall be sent each quarter to each person on the waiting list. The Secretary-Treasurer shall require from each person on the waiting list a flat subscription fee for the Fantasy Amateur on a calendar year basis, one year at a time, no extra years accepted, pro rata for parts of a year. Non-receipt of such indication shall be considered grounds for removal from the waiting list. As vacancies in the membership occur, the Secretary-Treasurer shall notify the person who applied the earliest, at which time the individual shall again cite valid credentials, published within a year from the date his membership is to begin, and must pay dues. In all cases, membership begins upon the date set for the next quarterly mailing unless a different date is set by the Secretary-Treasurer.

2.4 A new member must have renewal credentials distributed with the third mailing after his joining, or with an earlier mailing or post-mailing following his admission; otherwise he shall receive only the first two mailings of his membership year, his membership shall be cancelled and his dues forfeit.

2.5 Husband and wife, each having acceptable credentials, may establish and maintain a joint membership, which shall be regarded as a single person for payment of dues, receipt of mailings, voting in elections, signing petitions, and in holding office.

III. RENEWALS:

3.1 To renew his membership a member must have renewal credentials. Renewal credentials consist of contributions in the form of verse, drawings, fiction or non-fiction, or at least one issue of a fantasy amateur publication (fanzine) of which the member has been the editor or publisher in a real sense. Renewal credentials must total eight 82x11 pages or the equivalent in page area. Letters will not count unless they represent a substantial contribution to FAPA. To count, renewal credentials must be distributed in FAPA mailings or postmailings during the year that ends when the fourth quarterly mailing under the member's current membership is sent out. Postmailings that are not distributed before the fourth quarterly mailing do not count. Reprints do not count unless they represent substantial work in rewriting or compiling the material. (This provision shall not serve to deny credit to material solely because it was distributed outside FAPA shortly prior to its inclusion in a FAPA mailing.

3.2 If a member fails to have renewal credentials, due to section 5.56, an error of an officer, or postal delays beyond what might be reasonably and cautiously expected, he shall, if he offers dues in time, have an additional quarter in which to make up his credential deficiency. In these cases dues will be refundable. The member will not receive the fifth mailing unless his credential deficiency is removed, nor will further extensions be granted.

3.3 On endorsement by 22 members, a member's lack of renewal credentials shall be waived on a particular occasion.

3.4 Renewal dues must be paid so as to be received by the treasurer on or before the mailing date of the fourth mailing under the member's current membership.

3.5 On endorsement of 12 other members, a member will be granted an extension of one mailing to fulfill renewal requirements on a particular occasion. To be effective, all endorsements under this section or section 3.3 must reach the Secretary-Treasurer fifteen (15) days before the deadline of the mailing affected.

IV. FINANCES:

4.1 Dues are $4.00 per year for members in North America and $2.50 for overseas members. The treasurer will accept donations. The Official Editor will, at an annual sale, sell surplus stock to members, or persons on the waiting list, at such reasonable prices as he may set, the net proceeds going to the treasury.

4.2 If it appears that the treasury will lack funds to cover the cost of the next mailing, the Secretary-Treasurer can notify the membership of an equal assessment on all members, sufficient to meet expected costs and provide a small reserve.

Members not paying the assessment will not receive that mailing until they pay the assessment, within a time limit of six (6) months.

V. MAILINGS:

5.1 The Official Editor shall send out identical bundles to all members immediately following the mailing dates. The mailing dates are the second Saturday in November, February, May and August.

5.2 When necessary in order to get information to the members, officers may make mailings at FAPA expense between regular mailing dates. Other publications sent in by members may be distributed with such mailings if those members agree to pay any additional cost involved. The Official Editor, as an individual, and other members sometimes send publications to the members at other times. The expense of such unofficial mailings is not chargeable to the treasury.

5.3 Fanzines distributed between regular mailing dates are counted as postmailings to the preceeding mailing under these conditions:

5.31 Identical mailings have been sent to all members at substantially the same time, and additional copies, to bring the total to 68, have been furnished the Official Editor.

5.32 The publication satisfies sections 5.52 through 5.54.

- 5.4 Members are not obligated to distribute their fanzines through F.PA, but all items included in the mailing are produced at the publisher's expense and free to the members, being considered as exchanges.
- 5.5 Publications in the Official Editor's hands by the mailing dates shall be included in the quarterly bundle if they meet these requirements:

5.51 Sixty-eight (68) copies (to provide a margin for error) are furnished.

- 5.52 They are printed, mimeographed, hektographed, dittoed, photographed, or legibly reproduced in some other way that gives a sufficient number of identical copies.
- 5.53 The 68 copies are identical in size, artwork, typography, wording, etc, except for serial numbering, if desired. 5.54 They represent to a substantial extent the work of the member who sends them in. 5.55 They conform to the requirements for second, third and/or fourth class mail. 5.56 While some relation to fantasy or fandom is desirable, there is no restriction on the type of material except that it may not violate federal law. If such violation comes to his attention, the Official Editor shall exclude the item from the mailing. 5.57 They do not require special packaging. Material which requires special packaging due to its size, shape or weight may be mailed separately by the OE at the expense of the member submitting the material. The OE is not obligated to provide this service. VI. OFFICERS: 6.1 The following officers are elected annually from the membership: 6.11 The President. He has general direction of the FAPA's affairs. He appoints members to fill vacated offices, appoints a teller for the annual elections, and may appoint auxiliary officers for other purposes. He has whatever power is necessary to deal with situations not otherwise covered by this constitution. 6.12 The Vice-President. He becomes President if the presidency is vacated. In case of a controversy over the meaning of this constitution, after two or more sides have been formally presented by others, the Vice-President shall decide, and his decision is binding. He conducts an annual egoboo poll and furnishes the results to the Official Editor for inclusion in the Fantasy Amateur. 6.13 The Secretary-Treasurer. He receives membership applications, renewals, and filings for office. He keeps track of members standings in regard to renewal credentials. Each quarter he shall send to the Official Editor a list of members names and addresses, an identification of the credentials of new members, a report of income and outgo, and other information within the scope of his duties. He shall furnish the Official Editor information for preparing the ballot. He must keep FAPA's funds separate from his own, in cash or deposit. At the end of his term, he shall turn over the records and funds to his successor. The Secretary-Treasurer must be at least 21 years of age. 6.14 The Official Editor. He shall assemble and send out the mailing. He has eustody of the surplus stock. He shall publish election ballots and the official organ, The Fantasy Amateur. The Fantasy Amateur shall appear in each quarterly mailing and shall contain information about postmailings, a list of the current mailing's contents, the reports of the various officials, the text of any proposals to be voted on, and other appropriate materials at the Official Editor's discretion. The constitution shall be included in The Fantasy Amateur not less often than once every six months.

6.2 Each officer serves until his successor is elected and notified, unless he first resigns, loses his membership, or is expelled from office.

6.3 Although each officer is responsible for the duties indicated, he may have the help of others in performing them.

6.4 In the absence of a formal controversy, each officer may decide for himself dubious points concerning his duties.

VII. ELECTIONS:

7.1 Elections are held by mail. Candidates whose names are to appear on the ballot must file with the Secretary-Treasurer in writing. The ballots shall be included in the summer (August) mailing, except that ballots for use of overseas members shall be mailed to them first class or airmail at the time the summer mailing is posted.

7.2 All votes, to be counted, must be in the teller's hands a month after the mailing is dispatched. The teller shall notify all members of the results of the election within two weeks after the ballot deadline.

7.3 A plurality is sufficient to elect. 7.4 No person can be elected President or Vice-President more than once in 5 years.

VIII. MENDMENTS

8.1 Proposed amendments to this constitution, in writing, endorsed by four members, no more than two of whom are officers, shall be submitted to vote. The proposers shall send a copy, with the signatures, to the President, and other copies to the other officers. The gist of the amendment must be given in the Fantasy amateur before it comes up for a vote. Unless the President orders a special vote, amendments shall be voted on at the annual election. A majority of the votes must be favorable for the amendment to be adopted, and such majority must be more than one-fourth () the membership.

IX. SPECIAL RULES

- 9.1 Special rules may be adopted at any time a majority of the members endorse a copy of the proposal, if the proposal has been sent to the entire membership at substantially the same time. Such special rules may refuse applicants, expel members, remove officers, override official acts, suspend sections of this constitution, or do anything else within the sovereignty of the organization.
- 9.2 The Vice-President shall distribute, with the annual egoboo poll, and as a part thereon, an official form on which the members may list names of waiting-listers to whom they object. The Vice-President informs the Secretary-Treasurer of the results of this portion of the poll, and does not tabulate it as part of the egoboo poll. In the mailing following the distribution of the poll, the OE will distribute a ballot listing the names, to be voted on individually, of any waiting-lister objected to by ten (10) or more members. This ballot shall have an approximately two (2) months voting deadline, and shall be tabulated by the Secretary-Treasurer. I list of those voting shall be published in the Fantasy mateur, but not how they voted individually. In any such waiting-lister receiving more unfavorable than favorable votes in this balloting shall be dropped from the waiting list and barred from it and from the F.P. for the next four (4) mailings.
- 9.3 The Vice-President shall distribute, with the annual egoboo poll, and as a part thereon, an official form on which the members may list names of waiting-listers whom they would like to see given preferential admission to F.P.. In member of the waiting-list receiving twenty (20) or more votes in this section shall be advanced to the top of the waiting list. If more than one waiting-lister receives twenty (20) or more votes, the top three vote-getters will be advanced and ranked in order of the votes they received. No more than three waiting-listers may be so advanced in any year. The Vice-President informs the Secretary-Treasurer of the results of this portion of the poll and tabulates only those having more than twenty (20) votes as part of the egoboo poll. Idvancement to the top of the list will occur with the following quarterly mailing after current vacancies have been filled.

MAYBE #38 (Irvin Koch) 25 pp, reported last mailing, was not intended and was not distributed as a postmailing.

Irvin, by the way, and for reasons not entirely clear to me, has had an awful lot of trouble with mail delivery of his fanzines to my old address. For that reason, among others, I have decided to change my address on the FAPA roster to the place I am presently living. The FAPA mailings will continue to be produced from 150 Las Juntas Way, no doubt, at least through May, and you can use either address as you prefer. Mail addressed to Pleasant Hill will reach me quite a bit sooner, however, if time is important (other than the mailing deadline).
