

There has been a bit of a change in the plans announced for my running for the OE-ship together with Jim Barnes. Due to certain mundane things which have popped up since I stonewalled the third ish of INVADEN, Jim has been forced to withdraw from the candidacy. I am still interested in being the OE of this area. This thing here will tell you pretty much why I think I would make a fairly good one.

While Bill Platt has been the illustrious Official Editor of SFPA, he has been under pressure because of a pretty heavy collage schedule. I won't be in one year so I don't have any particularly time-consuming things that I have to do to take me away from the business of the area. And Al Andrews has agreed to take care of the treasury so no one need be in fear of it disappearing sometime. And I now have a mine of my own, so I can get the CO out. I have no revolutionary proposals to make; the only change I plan to make is that of getting the mailings out on time.
